MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

I am filled with immense gratitude for the remarkable journey of Life Pacific University (LPU) over the past 100 years. Throughout our history, the unwavering focus has been to educate biblically grounded, Spirit-empowered, and life-transformed individuals who are equipped to impact the world for Christ.

Since our founding by Aimee Semple McPherson, the University has upheld her visionary dream, propelling students towards purpose, discovering God's plans, and fulfilling one's potential. At LPU, we strive to be a catalyst for transformational development, preparing students for effectiveness in life and in service to others.

As a member of the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities (CCCCU), LPU is committed to the integration of biblical truth throughout our academic enterprise. We firmly believe that education should encompass more than mere intellectual growth—it should shape the moral and spiritual character of students. Our goal is to graduate individuals who not only excel academically but also make a tangible difference for the common good, becoming redemptive voices in the world.

Whether you are pursuing traditional undergraduate programs or online adult and graduate programs, each of you has a unique role and invaluable gifts to contribute to the community. With our exceptional faculty, relevant academic programs, and a vibrant faith culture, we are here to serve and support you every step of the way.

Together, we can continue to build upon the rich legacy of LPU, making a lasting impact for generations to come. I am confident that the next chapter of your journey will be filled with extraordinary moments, transformative experiences, and lives profoundly impacted by the power of Christ.

Thank you for being part of the LPU family. Your path ahead is filled with unlimited potential, and we are excited to witness the incredible achievements that lie ahead for you.

With heartfelt appreciation and anticipation,

Angie Richey, Ph.D., LMFT
President
Life Pacific University

CATALOG DISCLAIMER

This catalog is produced for the university by the Offices of the Vice President of Academic Affairs and the Registrar. It contains general academic and administrative information and specific descriptions of the courses of study offered. The first section contains general information pertinent to all programs, followed by sections describing specific policies that pertain to each program (e.g., traditional programs, adult degree completion programs, graduate programs).

Publication and effective dates are July 1st through June 30th of the respective academic year represented in this catalog.

Because this publication is prepared in advance of the year it covers, changes in some programs inevitably occur. Though the semester/term schedule of classes is the final authority in regard to classes offered, updated information may also be found on the Life Pacific University website (www.lifepacific.edu).

A schedule of classes is available prior to registration each semester/term. All classes are offered subject to instructor availability and sufficient enrollment.

Life Pacific University reserves the right to change any of its policies without prior notice, including but not limited to tuition, fees, unit-value per course, course offerings, curricula, grading policies, graduation and program requirements, and admission standards and policies.

This catalog supersedes all previous catalogs. The policies expressed in this catalog and each subsequent catalog will be controlling, regardless of any policies stated in a previous catalog received by the student upon his or her admission.

This catalog and each subsequent catalog are supplemented by the rules and regulations stated in department publications and on the website. Where conflict exists between any of these sources, the most recent rule, regulation, or policy will be controlling.

Students who wish to obtain specific information about the university not contained in the catalog are advised to consult the university's website (www.lifepacific.edu) or make a personal inquiry to:

UNIVERSITY INFORMATION

INTRODUCTION

Life Pacific University's intent is to build leaders who work from a strong foundation in the Word of God. Christians are only as effective in their efforts for God as they are enriched by their walk with God. As a result, we seek to cultivate a personal spiritual experience by providing an atmosphere of learning and interaction shaped by the principles of Scripture.

True human achievement is not gained through one's own accomplishments alone. The Spirit of God has been given to enable the believer in every aspect of life. Therefore, we seek to lead men and women into a deepened familiarity and perception of the work of the Holy Spirit.

Certainly, one of the most important decisions we will ever make, aside from our choice to follow Christ, is that of how and where we will serve Him. Our desire is to help you discover God's heart and will. LPU is the university of choice for those who want to confirm and clarify the call of God. Our goal is to equip you with the tools necessary to fulfill that call.

LPU offers diverse programs, a gifted, Spirit-filled staff and faculty, and training for everyone interested in developing as a Christian leader. The degrees available to students at LPU allow them to apply for a variety of jobs and further educational opportunities.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, our ministry happens wherever we live and work. Whether your goal is to be a pastor, educator, counselor, missionary, businessperson, or is yet to be decided, LPU will help strengthen your biblical foundation. At LPU, God's will and God's Word are our first concern for you.

HERITAGE

Life Pacific University was born in the midst of spiritual revival. In 1923, evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson established a Christian training center to equip men and women to become the evangelists, missionaries, pastors, and teachers the world so desperately needed to bring people to Christ and to establish people in God's Word.

Because she recognized the need for men and women to lead and nurture people in their faith, she began an interdenominational Bible institute (which became L.I.F.E. Bible College and later, Life Pacific College, and now Life Pacific University) that was dedicated to international evangelism. Life Pacific University thrives today as a testimony to her obedience to Jesus' command: "Go therefore and teach all nations..." (Matt. 28:19).

L.I.F.E. was so named with an acronym representing the Lighthouse of International Foursquare Evangelism. As such, our broad objective is the world-wide proclamation of the full gospel.

In the 1920's, the term "foursquare" was commonly employed to mean firm, straight-forward, bold, and without deception. It refers to a forthright declaration that Jesus is the world's only Savior; He is the Great Physician and Healer; He willingly baptizes believers with the Holy Spirit; and He is coming back as the reigning King.

Life Pacific University grew from a two-year institute and continues to be a strong Pentecostal/Charismatic Bible is committed to the Evangelical Pentecostal message. For 100 years LPU has offered the finest education and equipping for life-long ministry that is centered in the Word of God and empowered by the life-giving testimony of Jesus Christ.

MISSION - VISION – VALUES - DISTINCTIVES

Life Pacific University seeks to understand God's plans and purposes for each generation while it remains faithful to its foundation in the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. The University is committed to superior instruction of the Scriptures, alongside preparation in general education and a major field of study. It seeks to stimulate students' spiritual awareness, challenge intellectual potential, and shape character and lifestyle. To this end, faculty recruitment includes consideration of Christ-like character, academic excellence, ministry experience, and a commitment to teaching.

LPU strives to provide a caring community where the necessity of the empowering work of the Holy Spirit is fully recognized. The campus is a safe environment and provides a setting that is supportive of both educational and student life opportunities. The administration facilitates processes that work both to serve the interests of the students and to advance the mission of the university.

MISSION

Life Pacific University is an institution of biblical higher education existing for the transformational development of students into leaders prepared to serve God in the Church, the workplace, and the world.

VISION

Life Pacific University will be recognized worldwide as a premier Pentecostal institution, within the Foursquare tradition, characterized by a diverse community of Spirit-empowered students, scholars, and practitioners whose hearts and minds are devoted to Christ and His Kingdom.

VALUES

- Excellence | We strive for academic and professional excellence in behavior, communication, attitude, work, and all we do: in our functioning as an institution of higher education and in our personal lives.
- Unity | We work together to accomplish the mission of the University through intentional relationship with colleagues, students, and strategic partners in the spirit of humility, collaboration, and openness.
- Service | We serve God, one another, and those beyond our institution with servant leadership, authentic hospitality, encouragement, and contribution knowing that our work is unto the Lord for the common good.
- Empowerment | We strengthen the LPU community with information, tools, and resources to achieve desired results, displaying value for others through trust, positivity, accountability, and commitment to the pursuit of individual and collective growth.
- Celebration | We cultivate a vibrant culture that passionately engages the mission, vision, and values of the LPU community; celebrating and honoring the accomplishments of staff, faculty, students, and stakeholders; worshipping God in all things.

DISTINCTIVES

1. Scripture as our authoritative guide for faith and practice and the foundation for how we think, learn, live and minister. (2 Timothy 3:16);
2. Grace-based community exemplified by excellence organizationally, and Christ-like character individually. (Ephesians 2:11-22; John 15; Romans 8:28-30; Galatians 5:22-25/Ephesians 5:15-20)
3. Foursquare heritage and its appeal for moderation in doctrine and practice, a Pentecostal ethos and Spirit-empowered lifestyle, women in senior leadership, indigenous empowerment, and an integrated interdenominational mission to take the Gospel to the ends of the earth. (Titus 1:7-9; Eph. 4:11-13, Acts 1:4-8)
4. Global awareness displayed through celebrating diversity, understanding our place in the world, the far-reaching impact of decisions and actions, and innovatively engaging the world. (1 Corinthians 12:12-31; Matthew 28:19-20; John 17:17-19)

DECLARATION OF FAITH

The University believes in:

- THE HOLY SCRIPTURES | We believe that the Bible is God-inspired (2 Tim. 3:16, 17).
- THE ETERNAL GODHEAD | We believe that God is Triune: Father, Son and Holy Spirit (2 Cor. 13:14).
- THE CREATION OF HUMANKIND | We believe God created humankind, male and female, in his image and likeness; therefore, each human life is sacred possessing dignity, worth, and purpose (Genesis 1:27; 2:18-22).
- THE FALL OF HUMANKIND | We believe that humankind is created in the image of God but, by voluntary disobedience, fell from perfection—thereby imbuing humanity with sinfulness (Rom. 5:12).
- THE PLAN OF REDEMPTION | We believe that, while we were sinners, Christ died for us—pardoning all who believe in Him (John 3:16; Rom. 5:8).
- SALVATION THROUGH GRACE | We believe that we receive salvation when we come to God through faith in the atoning work of Jesus on the cross. Salvation is God's gift to us (Eph. 2:8).
- REPENTANCE AND ACCEPTANCE | We believe that, upon sincere repentance and a wholehearted acceptance of Christ, we are justified before God (Rom. 10:8-10; 1 John 1:9)

- THE NEW BIRTH | We believe that a genuine change takes place in people who accept Christ as Savior; believers allow Christ's life to be lived through them (2 Cor. 5:17; Gal. 2:20).
- DAILY CHRISTIAN LIVING | We believe that it is the will of God for believers to walk in progressive sanctification, growing continuously in the faith (Heb. 6:1).
- WATER BAPTISM & THE LORD'S SUPPER | We believe that baptism by immersion in water is an outward sign of an inward work (Matt. 28:19; Rom. 6:4). We believe in commemorating the Lord's Supper by the symbolic use of bread and fruit of the vine (1 Cor. 11:24, 25).
- BAPTISM WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT | We believe that baptism with the Holy Spirit empowers believers, and that the Holy Spirit's incoming follows the same pattern that is described in the New Testament (Acts 2:4).
- THE SPIRIT-FILLED LIFE | We believe that it is the will of God that we daily walk in the power of the Holy Spirit (Eph. 4:30-32)
- THE GIFTS AND FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT | We believe that the Holy Spirit has gifts to bestow upon Christians (1 Cor. 12:1-11) and that we should show spiritual fruit as evidence of a Spirit-filled life (Gal. 5:22-25).
- MODERATION | We believe that people who follow Christ should avoid the extremes of fanaticism and pursue lives of balance and moderation, demonstrating gentleness and patience (Phil. 4:5, KJV; Col. 3:12, 13).
- DIVINE HEALING | We believe that divine healing is the power of Christ to heal the sick in answer to prayer offered in faith (Jas. 5:14-16).
- THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST | We believe that the second coming of Christ is personal and imminent (1 Thess. 4:16, 17; Titus 2:11- 13)
- THE FINAL JUDGMENT | We believe every person will one day stand before the judgment seat of Christ to receive eternal life or death (Rev. 20:11-15; Heb. 9:27; 2 Cor. 5:10).
- HEAVEN | We believe that heaven is the glorious eternal home of born-again believers (John 14:1-3; Rev. 7:15-17).
- HELL | We believe that hell is the place of eternal torment for all who reject Christ as Savior (Rev. 20:11-15).
- EVANGELISM | We believe that the church's primary responsibilities are taking the gospel to the entire world and making disciples (Mark 16:15; Matt. 28:19-20)
- CHURCH RELATIONSHIP | We believe that followers of Christ have a sacred duty to identify with the visible church of Jesus Christ and should meet regularly with fellow believers (Heb. 10:24, 25).
- TITHES AND OFFERINGS | We believe the method ordained by God for the support and spread of His cause is giving tithes and offerings (Mal. 3:10; 2 Cor. 9:7)
- CIVIL GOVERNMENT | We believe that laws and ordinances come from God's ultimate authority and should be upheld, except when they are in opposition to the revealed will of God (Rom. 13:1-5).
- MARRIAGE | We believe marriage is the permanent, exclusive, legally-binding, covenantal relationship between one man and one woman, established by God for the welfare and happiness of humankind, to mirror his love for us in Christ, to refine our character, to allow for joyful participation with God in the creative process through procreation, to secure the stability necessary for the nurture of children produced by the marital union, and to reflect the unity of the triune God (Gen. 2:24; Matt. 19:3-8).
- GENDER | We believe God created humans as a biologically-sexed (male and female) pair, in biological sex at birth as a core distinction between males and females, and an individual's sex at birth as the determining factor for gender identity (Gen. 1:26-27; Matt. 19:4; Mark. 10:6).
- HUMANKIND'S PURPOSE AND VOCATION | We believe God's purposes for human beings are set forth in the Scriptures and by faith in His Son through the power and grace of the Spirit, and that this calling must be freely chosen and lived out. We believe denying and living outside of God's purposes leads to self-deception, sin, and idolatry obscuring one's own dignity and disregarding the dignity of others (Rom. 1:18-22).
- THE SANCTITY AND VALUE OF LIFE | We believe in the sanctity of life and the God-given right of each person to live out his or her full life from conception to natural death (Psalm 139:13-14). We believe all forms of abuse, slander, dehumanization, or oppression toward fellow human beings is an affront against God's sacred image and to God's purposes (Ja. 3:9-10) and enjoins us to respond with love, truth, and grace (Matt. 18:15-20; Gal. 6:1).

EDUCATIONAL APPROACH

Life Pacific University is an institution of biblical higher education dedicated to serving society at large and the Foursquare Church in particular through educating leaders for Christian ministry both within the Church and in society. As such it places greater emphasis on instruction and the development of students' knowledge, skills, and values than on research interests. Professors demonstrate instructional qualifications through degree attainment (a master's degree is a minimum qualification, with a terminal degree expected for all full-time faculty). Previous instructional and professional experience is an important hiring consideration. All full-time professors continually develop in both scholarship and pedagogy. Involvement in public service through church or non-profit ministry is a trademark of professors, administrators, staff, and students.

The study of the Bible is central to all educational programs at LPU. Bible and theology courses are rich in scholarship while characterized by the call to experience the reality of Christ in all facets of life. Students rigorously engage in the study of culture, biblical interpretation, and systematic and biblical theology.

General education courses equip students to consider fundamental concepts in the humanities and sciences thoughtfully, guided by a Judeo-Christian and specifically Pentecostal world view. They are designed to help students acquire the skills necessary to achieve academic success and to successfully engage the increasingly complex global culture. These courses are developed through a faith that is grounded in the Scriptures and embraces Christ's transforming power. All students take courses in the humanities, language and culture, social and behavioral sciences, math and natural sciences, and leadership studies. Students will have opportunities in their coursework to acquire foundational skills vital to their vocational direction and service in the church. Scripture teaches that all believers have a ministry, and fulfillment of that ministry is grounded in gaining and employing wisdom as well as trusting the Lord.

CHARACTER AND SERVICE COMMITMENT

In order that students are enriched in their walk with the Lord, LPU seeks to cultivate the roots of personal spiritual growth in an atmosphere of prayer and humility. Lives disciplined in the habit of Bible study are shaped by the precepts of Scripture. Guided by the Foursquare Gospel tradition and doctrine, LPU seeks to lead men and women into a deeper experience and understanding of the work of the Holy Spirit.

While enrolled, students will progress in character growth. College, as an experientially unique time, encourages students to a fresh examination of personal behavior in light of Christ-likeness. LPU cultivates integrity, virtue, and grace. Emotional maturity and balance accompany these character qualities.

In order to complete the cycle of learning and experience ministry growth, it is necessary for students to integrate coursework with ministry, work, and service. LPU emphasizes and leads students into a meaningful program of ministry formation as a correlate of the academic program. Both on and off campus, students are challenged to become culturally and socially gracious and sensitive.

COMMUNITY LIFE

LPU functions to promote spiritual, social, emotional, and academic growth in the individual that will motivate and equip each student to better accomplish the purposes of God in his/her life. It is an underlying presupposition of the University that each student has been called of God to be a part of this community.

It is the focus of Life Pacific University to be a model of an authentic Christian Community. While the University places a fundamental emphasis on the health of the community, we recognize that God is also vitally concerned with the individuals who make up that community.

Community Standards

It is the University's expectation that each student holds to a high standard of personal conduct. While the Scriptures do not provide specific teaching regarding all behavior, they do advocate self-restraint in matters that are harmful or offensive to others. In addition, the University takes a firm and positive stance regarding the authority of Scripture concerning specific moral issues.

When enrolling at LPU, students are admitted with the understanding that they will comply with all University standards with moral and spiritual integrity and a sense of responsibility to the University community.

Community Life Agreement

Life Pacific University has chosen to set itself apart for the purpose of training and equipping Christian servant leaders. It is crucial, therefore, that students' attitudes and behaviors reflect the character of Jesus Christ at all times. Students, by their voluntary membership in this Christian community, assume responsibility to:

- Abide by all University regulations, and
- Use personal discretion involving any activities which may be morally or spiritually destructive or reflect poorly on the campus community.

In particular, LPU expects students to refrain from:

1. Possession, distribution, or use of intoxicants, illegal drugs, or tobacco products.
2. Inappropriate sexual behavior, including any conduct of sexual harassment, homosexuality, or viewing of pornography in any form.
3. Inappropriate dress.
4. Inappropriate entertainment.
5. Cheating.
6. Fighting, violence, hazing or self-inflicted harm.
7. Profanity and obscenity.
8. Gambling.

All students represent Christ and Life Pacific University wherever they are and are expected to exhibit a distinctive Christian lifestyle in all their activities, both on and off campus. The Community Life Agreement is in place for the express purpose of moving students towards Christian maturity and service and creating an environment that is conducive to academic learning and personal growth and development.

For more detailed descriptions and expectations, please refer to the Community Life Agreement and Standards sections of program specific Student Handbooks.

ATHLETICS

The LPU community believes that the body's development as a vessel of God and as an instrument for His use is essential. We encourage all students to cultivate some program of exercise and to learn the discipline of a healthy lifestyle while studying at the University.

LPU is a current member of the National Association Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Division 1 level and also a proud member of The Golden State Athletic Conference, which is comprised of ten like-minded institutions in California and Arizona.

Eligibility for sports requires a minimum 860 on the SAT reading and math, and an 18 on the ACT. As a Division I member, LPU is permitted to offer limited scholarships to qualified student athletes on a case-by-case basis. Each participating athlete is required to have a minimum 2.5 GPA before being permitted to participate in LPU Athletics and receiving any scholarship.

INSTITUTIONAL STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

As an institution, LPU's staff and faculty strive to model a grace-based community, treating all people with respect and kindness. The willingness to be a learning organization is evident in all departments as they strive to support student learning.

Graduates of Life Pacific University are able to:

Specialized Knowledge

Apply specialized knowledge and skills from their major field of study in order to effectively serve God in the Church, the workplace, and the world.

Integrated Learning

Integrate knowledge from various fields (Bible, theology, ministry, Foursquare distinctives, science, history, culture, ethics, philosophy) in serving God and humanity.

Core Competencies

Demonstrate competent communication, information literacy, quantitative reasoning, and critical/creative thinking skills appropriate for their discipline and for ministering to humanity.

Practical Ministry

Apply the gospel, a knowledge of human needs, life-long learning, and personal spiritual development for effective ministry in the Church, the workplace, and the world.

Global Awareness

Acknowledge the multicultural diversity within humanity, by practicing informed engagement in political discourse and caring for people and the environment from a globally aware, Christ-centered perspective.

Character Development

Conduct themselves with Christ-like character in their personal and public lives, demonstrating a life lived in accordance with and empowered by the Spirit.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTER

The Academic Support Center exists to provide academic resources to students in the form of tutoring, both individual and group sessions, and writing review and oversight. To make an appointment for tutoring, follow the link at <https://lifepacific.edu/student-life/student-services/academic-support/>.

COMPUTER TECHNOLOGY

Life Pacific University is committed to providing a stable, operational, information-technology infrastructure by using industry standard practices and proven technologies. Taking advantage of new tools that can aid our students in learning and scholarship is a department priority—making online learning and student email accessible through web browsers, smartphones, and tablets.

The University recommends that all students invest in a personal computer and develop proficiency in current computer applications; skills which will aid them in any occupation or vocation they choose in the future. Writing papers, submitting assignments, classroom presentations, communicating by email or chat, and conducting research are just a few examples of tasks made more efficient through technology. Internet is provided in the residence halls via wired or wireless options. The library also provides numerous computer workstations with printing capability for student use.

COUNSELING SERVICES

The University understands that various circumstances arise in students' lives that can be emotionally and mentally challenging. Therefore, LPU is committed to providing resources that serve students' emotional and mental needs. Currently, this is accomplished through on-campus mentorships and professional Christian counseling provided at no cost to the student. Counseling is provided by Emmaus Road Christian Counseling, a service located near the LPU campus.

DISABILITY SERVICES

Life Pacific University understands the rigorous demands on college students. Completing a college program requires physical and mental stamina as well as maturity. Sometimes disabilities or chronic conditions can make the college experience a difficult one. The 1990 Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) mandates equal opportunity for students to participate in or benefit from the services offered by a place of public accommodation. LPU seeks to provide reasonable accommodations for students who may be in this situation.

ADA-qualified individuals must have a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities. (Major life activities involve caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning (which includes any type of diagnosed learning disability), and working.) Moreover, a qualified disabled student must meet the academic and technical standards requisite for admission or participation in an education program or activity.

Student Responsibilities: Student who are aware or suspect, that they meet ADA qualifications should take the following steps:

- Fill out the Disability Accommodation Application (application available online at <https://lifepacific.edu/student-life/student-services/disability-services/>).
- Submit an application and formal documentation by a doctor on letterhead stating the specific disability (dated within the past 3 years) to the Academic Affairs Office. This form will be sent to the Director of Academic Support Services, who will contact the student to schedule a meeting to discuss an accommodation plan. Students whose disability is long-term will need to submit a Disability Accommodation Application at the beginning of each academic year.
- Meet with the Director of Academic Support Services at the beginning of every semester to develop accommodations for their classes.

- If it is necessary for a student to be tested or assessed for a disability, it is the student's responsibility to obtain this testing from an outside source, such as a licensed psychologist or qualified educational therapist. At this time, LPU does not provide psychological or educational testing.

LIBRARY

Established through the LIFE Alumni Association, the university library provides information resources for academic pursuit and a comfortable place to study. There is a strong theological collection and a growing general education and professional disciplines collection that total more than 45,000 volumes. Careful selection of new materials by staff and faculty contributes to the quality of the library's collection. Computer stations are available for word processing, email, and research through access to the library catalog, online databases, and other Internet resources. The library also provides reference and research instruction for both students (one-on-one basis) and faculty (classroom) upon request. In addition, LPU's library provides off-site students and faculty with all vital library services. Students and faculty can access the library's online catalog, search for books available through the Life Pacific University Library, and fill out loan requests. The library catalog is accessible through the library home page at https://lifepacific.libguides.com/university_library.

STATEMENT OF NONDISCRIMINATION

In compliance with federal and state regulations, Life Pacific University admits students of any race, gender, color, national and ethnic origin, physical ability, status as a veteran, or any other characteristic protected by law to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities offered to students at the University.

STATEMENT ON GENDER

We believe God created humans as a biologically-sexed (male and female) pair, in biological sex at birth as a core distinction between males and females, and an individual's sex at birth as the determining factor for gender identity (Gen. 1:26-27; Matt. 19:4; Mark. 10:6).

All official student data (including, but not limited to admissions applications, enrollment data, alumni records, and transcripts) and decisions (including, but not limited to housing assignments and the application of other residential policies) will reflect a student's gender at birth. Please see the LPU website for the full Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity statement.

STATEMENT ON DIVERSITY

In our dedication to Christian discipleship and in obedience to the biblical mandate for diversity that leads to unity (Joel 2:28-29; Acts 2; Galatians 3:6-29; 1 Corinthians 12; Revelation 7:9), being guided by the institutional mission of Life Pacific University and the four cardinal doctrines of The Foursquare Church, and committed to the diverse voices of our community, we at LPU strive to be a communal witness of God's plan of redemption for all creation as we live, learn, and labor together in love for inclusion, justice, and reconciliation.

Jesus Christ the Savior

We affirm that the Cross transforms our diversity from being what divides us into what unites us as the Body of Christ.

Therefore, we commit to:

- supporting student, staff, and faculty success by offering equitable access;
- engaging in civil dialogue between individual/group perspectives;
- valuing difference by participating in mutual learning in safe environments.

Jesus Christ the Baptizer in the Holy Spirit

As a Pentecostal community, we seek to facilitate understanding between every member of our diverse constituencies as the Spirit empowers, renews, and gives utterance.

Therefore, we commit to:

- promoting an understanding of the complexity of human identity that ultimately leads to a deeper commitment towards unity;
- affirming that charitable intercultural engagement includes Christlike interaction with people on campus as well as in study abroad;
- developing tangible ways to experience diversity in our student services, curriculum, and spiritual life.

Jesus Christ the Healer

We participate in Christ's healing work by the power of the Holy Spirit to create places of healing for the powerless who are wounded as well as the powerful who are often unable to recognize systemic injustice.

Therefore, we commit to:

- repenting from our complicity in unjust systems, to Christ that he may heal us from our failure to respond to marginalized voices;
- recognizing God's image in all people by promoting equitable systems that restore human dignity to the marginalized while denouncing individual/systemic practices that dehumanize and demonize;
- cultivating human flourishing by removing obstacles caused by individual prejudice and systemic conditions.

Jesus Christ the Soon and Coming King

We witness God's coming Kingdom by moving beyond appreciation and accommodation towards becoming an institution of biblical higher education where members of every tongue, tribe, and nation live in equity and inclusion.

Therefore, we commit to:

- modeling eschatological hope by recruiting students, and hiring faculty, staff, and administration from all people inclusive of diverse cultural, ethnic, gender, social-economic backgrounds, and the differently abled;
- building sustainable structures for equity and inclusion monitored by assessable metrics;
- the transformational development of students into leaders in justice and reconciliation in the Church, the workplace, and the world.

TITLE IX INFORMATION

Life Pacific University affirms a commitment to Christian values and works to provide a campus community environment free from harassment. LPU also is committed to recognizing, upholding, and enforcing the laws of the United States and the State of California. Violation of those laws shall not be condoned on the campus or at any activity held off campus by any constituency. It is the policy of LPU, in keeping with its efforts to establish an environment in which the dignity and worth of all members of the community are respected, that any sexual harassment of students and employees is unacceptable conduct and will not be tolerated. Sexual harassment may involve the behavior of a person of either sex against a person of the opposite or same sex, when that behavior falls within the definition outlined below. The University's sexual harassment policy applies equally to all individuals classified as a student, faculty, or staff member. Any reported incident of possible sexual harassment or assault will be investigated promptly.

For LPU's full policy please see the LPU Website: <https://lifepacific.edu/title-ix/>

Senior Title IX Coordinator: Human Resources Director- Heidi Bonadie, (909) 706-3085

Deputy Title IX Coordinator: VP of Student Life – George Bostanic, (909) 706-3055

Title IX Investigator: Director of Residence Life – Hannah Gilstrap (909) 706-3092

Title IX Investigator: Head Librarian – Josh Ortega (909) 706-3008

Title IX Exemptions Disclosure

Life Pacific University is a Christ-centered learning community that exists for the transformational development of students into leaders prepared to serve God in the Church, the workplace, and the world. Our identity as a Christian institution within the Foursquare tradition, characterized by a diverse community of Spirit-empowered students, scholars, and practitioners whose hearts and minds are devoted to Christ and His Kingdom, is central to all that we do and teach.

As a Christian institution, we affirm the divine creation of humanity in the image of God (Gen. 1:26-27). The image is shared by all humans equally and, therefore, all individuals are equally valuable. We do not tolerate any form of illegal discrimination or harassment and are committed to providing a learning and living environment that promotes dignity, student safety, transparency, personal integrity, civility, and mutual respect.

While the university does not exclude students from attendance limit educational activities based solely on sexual orientation or gender identity, our biblical beliefs regarding human sexuality and gender do inform and animate many of our policies and practices. Therefore, LPU has applied for the regulatory exemption under Title IX, 34 C.F.R. section 106.12. Furthermore, LPU is also exempted by the state from California Education Code 66270, to the extent the application of California Education Code 66270 is not consistent with the institution's religious tenets.

Life Pacific University maintains the view that all official student data (including, but not limited to admissions applications, enrollment data, alumni records, and transcripts) and decisions (including, but not limited to housing assignments and the application of other residential policies) will reflect a student's sex at birth.

GRIEVANCE POLICY

Students who have a grievance are encouraged to use the academic or co-curricular processes described in the following sections to seek a resolution. Individuals who initiate a complaint are protected from unfair action or treatment. LPU will take appropriate action against any employee or student who retaliates against another employee or student who files a grievance.

Academic Grievance

If a student has a grievance or concern regarding a faculty member or classroom issue, the student is encouraged to first meet with the faculty member to resolve the matter. If resolution is not made to the satisfaction of the student, the student should then contact the Assistant to the Vice President of Academic Affairs. The Academic Office will inform the student of how the grievance will be handled and how privacy in the matter will be protected to the extent the student desires and is possible. The student will be asked to convey the facts of the situation in writing. At the end of the meeting, options will be discussed, and a follow-up appointment will be made with the student if requested.

If the issue is minor, the Academic Office may wait to see if additional complaints are filed about the same professor. Should the issue be of a more serious nature, the Administrative Council will be notified.

In matters of dispute regarding a final course grade assignment, the student, after meeting with the professor and not achieving a resolution, is asked to put the facts in written form and submit an appeal through the Assistant to the Vice President of Academic Affairs. The Academic Committee will review the facts of the case and make a determination based on the evidence provided.

Co-curricular Grievance

In the event that a student has a serious concern about a specific policy of the University that is outside of academic concern, the student is encouraged to communicate with the Dean of Students/Vice President of Student Life. The appeal should be made in writing describing the nature of the grievance, the evidence upon which it is based, and the remedy sought. The Dean of Students/Vice President of Student Life will act to bring formal resolution to the stated grievance. If satisfactory action is not achieved, an appeal may be directed to an Ad Hoc Appeals Committee for final resolution.

An individual may contact the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education for review of a complaint. The bureau may be contacted at:

2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400
Sacramento, CA 95833

Telephone: (916) 431-6924
FAX: (916) 263-1897

Maryland Residents

Life Pacific University is registered with the Maryland Higher Education Commission as an out-of-state institution that can enroll Maryland students in online distance education. Students residing in Maryland can direct complaints to:

Maryland Attorney General
Consumer Protection Division
200 St. Paul St.
Baltimore, MD 21202
410-528-8662/888/743/0823 (toll free)

Oregon Residents

Life Pacific University is registered with the Oregon Higher Education Coordinating Commission as an out-of-state institution that can enroll Oregon students in online distance education. Students should attempt to resolve any grievances they may have with their school first. Should attempts to resolve these problems with appropriate school officials fail, or should the student be dissatisfied with the final outcome of the college complaint process, then the Higher Education Coordinating Commission (HECC), can respond to a formal complaint. Students in Oregon may direct unresolved complaints to:

Higher Education Coordinating Commission
3225 25th St. SE
Salem, OR 97302

or by sending an email to complaints@hecc.oregon.gov Students may also access our complaints web page.

LPU-Virginia Students

Any student with a complaint that cannot be resolved after exhausting the school's grievance procedure may file a complaint with the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV). Retaliation against students who file a grievance with Life Pacific University or complaint with SCHEV is prohibited. Life Pacific University shall take appropriate action against any student or employee who retaliates against another student or employee. The student should submit written complaints to: State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, Private and Out-of-State Postsecondary Education, 101 N. 14th Street, 9th Floor, James Monroe Building, Richmond, VA 23219

UNIVERSITY ADMISSIONS

Acceptance into any LPU program of study is contingent on the student's ability to perform in the academic programs. An earnest commitment to academic studies as well as a sincere personal commitment to Christian faith and practice as evidenced in the students' lifestyle and church involvement are essential elements to the admission process.

GENERAL ACCEPTANCE CRITERIA

Admissions criteria are inseparably linked with the mission of the University. LPU desires to admit students whose faith, character, motivation, and abilities are in accord with its programs. We seek men and women whose primary aim in life is to glorify the Lord and to proclaim the Good News.

Evaluation of the application focuses on the following areas in particular:

Spiritual Fit—Applicants are asked to give evidence of a sincere, personal relationship with Jesus, an established Christian character and lifestyle, and commitment to the ways of the Lord. It is not the purpose of LPU to be legalistic, but because of the demands placed on a student preparing for ministry, an established pattern of upright living is essential.

The University is doctrinally Pentecostal. We hope that students have received (or are seeking) the baptism with the Holy Spirit as defined within Pentecostalism (an empowerment for service as witnessed to in Acts 1-2). Applicants from other doctrinal backgrounds are welcome but should understand that LPU teaches from a Pentecostal perspective.

Academic Preparedness—Applicants should have sufficient educational background to enable them to succeed in their program of study. For applicants to the undergraduate programs, an official high school transcript documenting graduation, proof of high school equivalence, or completion of at least 24 transferable college units is required for admission. The graduate program requires that a student have an accredited bachelors degree. Please see specific academic admissions requirements on the respective program pages in this catalog. Meeting the minimum admissions requirements does not guarantee admission to the University.

UNDERGRADUATE APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS & PROCESS

An application for admission may be submitted online at <https://apply.lifepacific.edu/apply/>. Once the online application is submitted, applicants will be provided access to the LPU Portal where they can view and submit required documents. Any questions about the application process can be directed to the Office of Admissions at admissions@lifepacific.edu or (877) 886-5433.

A completed application includes, but is not limited to, the online application, application fee, personal essay, proof of English proficiency (see below), and final official high school and/or college transcripts (see below). Once all application items are submitted, the admissions office and/or admissions committee will prayerfully review the file to determine an admissions decision. Admissions decisions are typically provided within two weeks from the submission of all items. An incomplete application will not be reviewed for admission. The Office of Admissions will notify the applicant of the admission decision by mail, email, and a phone call. Applicants are welcome to contact the Admissions Office regarding the status of their application.

In order to become eligible to enroll, admitted students will be required to submit a tuition deposit, residence hall application or commuter appeal form, health form and immunization records, and a housing security deposit (if planning to live on campus).

Please note: If the Admissions Office does not hear from an applicant for 30 days or more, it will be assumed that the applicant is not planning to enroll, and their application will be closed.

APPLICATION POLICIES

Proof of English Proficiency

Proof of English proficiency may be provided through one of the following means:

- Official SAT scores with a composite of 1010 or higher (Tests taken before March 2016 require A composite score of 1060 or higher.)
- Official ACT scores with a composite of 19 or higher
- Official AP English Language & Composition test score of 3 or better

- Accredited college course, completed with C- or better, that fulfills transfer requirements for English Composition and Grammar or English Composition and Research

If you meet one of the criteria below, please contact an admissions counselor for more information as other options may be available for you to fulfill your English proficiency requirement.

Exception criteria:

- You graduated from high school three or more years prior to the term you intended to enroll.
- You completed at least 16 accredited college units prior to the term you intend to enroll.

Test-Optional Policy

Currently, Life Pacific University is waiving the standardized test score requirement for current applicants.

Transcripts

Applicants must submit official transcripts from the high school they graduated from and all post-secondary institutions they have attended. Students transferring in at least 24 college academic units or who have earned a GED or other credential equivalent to a high school diploma are not required to submit a high school transcript. In order for a transcript to be considered official, it must be received in a sealed official school envelope or delivered electronically directly from the sending school via fax, email, transcript service, or other verified means.

In-process transcripts may be used to offer provisional acceptance. Final transcripts are required to complete an applicant's file and confirm eligibility to enroll. Final transcripts must indicate graduation date and a minimum cumulative 2.5 GPA (weighted or unweighted).

Highschool Transcripts

Final high school transcripts must indicate graduation date and a minimum cumulative 2.5 GPA (weighted or unweighted). Applicants with a GPA below 2.5 may submit a GPA appeal to be considered by the admissions committee for acceptance on academic probation. Please note that meeting the minimum requirement does not guarantee admission to the university.

College Transcripts

If an applicant has completed 24 or more academic college units post high school, their college GPA will be used for determining incoming academic standing. Final College transcripts must indicate a minimum cumulative 2.0 GPA. Applicants with a GPA below 2.0 may submit a GPA appeal to be considered by the admissions committee for acceptance on academic probation. Please note that meeting the minimum requirement does not guarantee admission to the university.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

Life Pacific University will consider applications until New Student Orientation, as capacity allows. However, there are several application deadlines to encourage timely submission of applications and to prioritize applications. The regular deadline to complete the application is December 1 for the Spring semester and May 1 for the Fall semester. After this date, applications will continue to be considered until the beginning of the semester, but late fees or other penalties may apply.

The deadline for the Residence Hall Application is November 1 for Spring and June 1 for Fall and must be accompanied by a residence hall deposit.

DATES TO REMEMBER:

Fall Semester

- December 15 – Early Application Deadline
- March 1 – Priority Application Deadline
- May 1 – Regular Application Deadline
- May 1 – Tuition & Residence Hall Deposit Deadline
- August 1- Tuition & Housing Deposits Are No Longer Refundable

Spring Semester

- December 1 – Regular Application Deadline

- December 1 – Tuition & Residence Hall Deposit Deadline
- December 1 – Tuition & Housing Deposits Are No Longer Refundable

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The University is authorized to enroll nonimmigrant alien students. International applicants to the online undergraduate program are not eligible for an I-20 or to receive a student visa, however, they can be considered for admission if they choose to complete the program from abroad.

International students in the online Graduate Program are required to secure a student visa for the one-week on campus residencies. Due to the nature of the graduate program, the initial I-20 is only valid for the first residency week. LPU will need to issue a new I-20 for the second residency week, and the student will be required to pay the I-901 fee again.

In keeping with guidelines set by the Bureau of United States Citizenship & Immigration Services, the University requires international students to complete the same admissions process as any other student. In addition, the following policies and requirements apply to international applicants:

International applicants who are in the United States on an R-1 visa are required to submit documentation from the organization the applicant serves. This documentation indicates that the organization is aware that the applicant will be attending college while in the U.S. Those applicants who have been granted refugee status should submit proper documentation to Life Pacific University.

Proof of English Proficiency

Prospective students for whom English is not their native language must provide proof of adequate English language skills. LPU accepts official test scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), Pearson Test of English (PTE), International English Language Testing System (IELTS), or Duolingo English Test. This requirement does not apply to an applicant who either earned an undergraduate or graduate degree or who earned at least 60 credit hours from a university in which the language of instruction was English. The minimum scores are: TOEFL - 550 paper based, 213 computer based, 80 internet based; PTE - 53; IELTS - 6.5; Duolingo - 110. Valid scores are required. TOEFL, PTE, IELTS, and Duolingo scores are valid for two years after the test date

Verification of Secondary School Equivalency

Students must provide secondary school records verifying an education equivalent to that of a U.S. high school diploma. If the original documents are not in English, an official notarized English translation may be required by the applicant. If U.S. high school diploma equivalency cannot be determined from documents provided, the records will need to be evaluated by an official credentialing agency approved by the university.

Evaluation of College Level Coursework

College transcripts must be evaluated, not just translated, by an official credentialing agency. Life Pacific University recommends using AERC (American Education Research Corporation, Inc.). The evaluation needs to be a detailed report including a subject-by-subject breakdown, semester unit equivalency, grading system equivalency and grade point average.

Proof of Ability to Meet Financial Obligations

According to U.S. law, international students may not accept off-campus employment or receive payment for services rendered. Therefore, international students must demonstrate an ability to pay full tuition, fees, and living costs for their first year of attendance. This documentation must be received before an I-20 will be issued.

Applicants must complete the International Affidavit of Financial Support and provide bank statements certifying his/her personal funds. If the student is receiving funds from a sponsor, including parents or other family members, a Sponsor Financial Certification Form and bank statements must be completed for each sponsor. In some situations, international students may be required to obtain the services of an independent evaluation service to translate bank statements.

Application File Review

In some situations, international students may be required to obtain the services of an independent evaluation service for transcripts or other documents. This would involve an additional cost to the applicant.

International students should allow a minimum of four months for the completion of files and subsequent review by the Admissions Committee. When the entire file is complete, it will be reviewed by the Admissions Committee.

For students applying to attend the San Dimas or Virginia campus, upon approval for acceptance into the University, and upon receipt of financial documentation, a letter of acceptance and the SEVIS I-20 Form will be sent to the applicant. The applicant must then present these documents to the U.S. Embassy/Consulate to apply for the F-1 visa. International students must arrive at the University on the date the residence halls open as listed in the Academic Calendar on page 35. To remain in approved status, international students must carry a minimum of 12 units each semester and a satisfactory GPA.

NON-DEGREE SEEKING STUDENTS

In order to be admitted to Life Pacific University, non-degree seeking applicants must meet the same spiritual criteria indicated for traditional studies programs. Non-degree seeking applicants are not required to meet any academic requirements in order to be admitted as a non-degree seeking student. However, if a non-degree seeking applicant is accepted, but does not meet the academic requirements (or does not submit transcripts, test scores, or other relevant documents) indicated for traditional studies programs, the applicant will be restricted to taking 9-units. NDS applicants intending to apply for a degree program at a later semester are recommended to submit transcripts in order to receive guidance on which classes to select. An applicant must re-apply as a degree-seeking student if they wish to enter an existing academic program.

In order to apply, non-degree seeking students must submit the following: 1) Undergraduate Application for Admission, 2) Personal Essay, and 3) Christian Character Reference Form. Non-degree seeking applicants are highly encouraged to submit transcripts if there is any intent to enroll in a degree program at a later time. Transcripts are required to for a NDS student to enroll in more than 9 units. If admitted, a non-degree seeking student will be required to submit a $100 tuition deposit, health form, and residence hall application and deposit (if applying to live on campus).

GRADUATE PROGRAM APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS & PROCESS

An application for admission may be completed online at <https://apply.lifepacific.edu/apply/>. Once the online application is submitted, applicants will be provided access to the LPU Portal where they can view and submit required documents. Any questions about the application process can be directed to the Office of Admissions at admissions@lifepacific.edu or (877) 886-5433.

A completed application includes, but is not limited to, the online application, application fee, personal essay, two professional recommendations, official college transcripts. Completed applications are held for review until the application deadline and notice regarding the admittance decision can be expected from the Admissions Office within two weeks from that deadline. An incomplete application will not be reviewed for admission. Students who are accepted to the University will be emailed a formal letter of acceptance and a copy of the cohort schedule. Additional information regarding the required residency week and book ordering will also be emailed to the student. Applicants are welcome to contact the Admissions Office regarding the status of their application.

Please note: If the Admissions Office does not hear from an applicant for 30 days or more, it will be assumed that the applicant is not planning to enroll, and their application will be closed.

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must have a bachelor's degree from a school accredited by a USDE and CHEA recognized accrediting organization (graduates from LIFE East and Mount Vernon are eligible to apply). For the MASL, MLSP, MATS/MDIV and MBA programs, applicants must have an undergraduate cumulative GPA of 2.5. Applicants with a GPA below a 2.5 may be considered for acceptance on academic probation. Applicants for the MAC program, must have an undergraduate cumulative GPA of 3.0. Applicants with a GPA below a 3.0 may be considered for acceptance on academic probation.

Applicants to the MAC program who do not have a completed an Introduction to Psychology course as part of their undergraduate course work will be required to complete the course prior to the start of the program.

For the MASL, MLSP, MATS, and MDIV degrees, the University is able to consider applications from a very limited number of students without a bachelor's degree based upon criteria such as age (minimum 35 years old), significant high-level ministry and/or professional experience (minimum 10 years) and demonstrated academic ability to succeed in graduate-level coursework.

International Students

Due to the online nature of the graduate programs at LPU, applicants are only eligible for an I-20 and student visa for the required one-week residency. I-20 forms will need to be renewed and repaid for every required one-week residency.

In addition to the admissions requirements listed above:

1. An applicant whose education has been in a country where English is not the primary language is required to submit a TOEFL score (Test of English as a Foreign Language) as documentation of English proficiency. The college code for this test is 4264. The minimum score accepted for the M.A. degree is 550 (paper-based), 213 (computer-based) or 79 (internet-based).
2. Transcript(s) reflecting the equivalency of a bachelor's degree must be submitted. Transcripts must be evaluated, not just translated, by an official credentialing agency. Life Pacific University recommends using AERC (American Education Research Corporation, Inc.). The evaluation needs to be a detailed report including a subject-by-subject breakdown, semester unit equivalency, grading system equivalency and grade point average.

International applicants who are in the United States on an R-1 visa are required to submit documentation from the organization the applicant serves. This documentation indicates that the organization is aware that the applicant will be attending college while in the U.S. Those applicants who have been granted refugee status should submit proper documentation to Life Pacific University.

REENTRANT ADMISSION

Undergraduate students who have been away from LPU for one semester or more must contact the Admissions Office for readmission and complete the reentrant application. Students away for three or more semesters must provide a current character reference. All reentrant applicants must provide a $100 tuition deposit and, if staying on campus, submit a new dorm application and $200 residence hall deposit. Clearance will be required from the Office of the Registrar and/or the Office of Student Life based upon the student's history with the school. A student with an outstanding balance will not be allowed to reenter until all balances are paid. Applications must be completed by August 1 for the fall semester or by December 1 for the spring term. A $100.00 late fee may be required if the application process is not completed by the respective deadlines.

Students who reenter after five years must complete a full application by the above deadlines and are required to attend orientation. All approved reentrants will be notified regarding registration requirements.

If a student withdraws from the University and later returns, he/she must meet the requirements in effect under the current university catalog.

Students who have shown poor academic progress over an extended period of time or who were dismissed with cause may need to complete additional requirements for reentry. These additional requirements may include counseling, group meetings, or other requirements to assist the student in the student's development.

UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC INFORMATION

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

ACADEMIC FREEDOM AND RESPONSIBILITY

As an institution of higher education, it is the goal of the University to pursue and disseminate truth. Accordingly, trustees, administration, faculty, staff, and students are free to question assumptions and to consider alternatives in the course of their pursuits and communication in the classroom, in casual and formal conversation, and in written communication.

At the same time, as a Christian institution, this University believes the Scripture to be inspired by God and, therefore, to be the norm against which all "truth" is to be measured. Since human reasoning is fallible, all perceived "truth" is not necessarily God's truth; only that which is consistent with the Scriptures is God's truth.

Therefore, the University emphatically rejects indoctrination, whether it results from eliminating the Scriptures as a norm, or whether it results from restricting the free pursuit of ideas.

Thus, both the faculty and students of the University are free to pursue and disseminate truth and have the responsibility to measure their conclusions against the Scriptures, within the context of the Declaration of Faith of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

Any concern or complaint regarding the Academic Freedom policy should be referred to the due process and grievance procedure.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Each student at LPU is responsible to maintain honesty and integrity in all academic work. All projects and papers submitted must be the student's own work; no rewording or copying of another person's work is allowed. Any violations will carry a penalty and must be reported to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The penalty can range from loss of the assignment (earned "F") to academic dismissal. Lack of integrity is evidenced by the following:

- Cheating – using unauthorized material or information in any academic exercise. Projects or papers must be original work by the student submitting the work, and it cannot be work done for another course unless there is pre-approval by the instructor. Exam situations assume individual and unassisted work unless specified by the Faculty Representative.
- Plagiarism – representing another person's ideas or words as one's own. This includes three or more words taken directly from an author, also distinctive ideas or phrases, and paraphrased arguments or line of thought.
- Fabrication – inventing or falsifying any information or citation in academic work.

Anyone who assists another student in an academic integrity offense is equally responsible. The University promotes sound moral values in all areas of campus life including honesty in all academic endeavors.

All course outlines for online courses include the following statement:

The university requires students in online courses to submit an academic honesty statement to pass the course in response to the 2008 Higher Education Opportunity Act's requirement that institutions offering distance education establish that the student who registers for a distance education course is the same student who participates in and completes the course and receives academic credit. At the end of this course, you will be asked to verify that all work you have done for the course has been your own. Failure to sign the statement will result in failure of the course.

Students are required to type out an honesty statement as the last assignment in each online course – this will serve as an electronic signature.

DISCLOSURE OF STUDENT RECORDS

With certain exceptions provided by law (listed below as directory information), Life Pacific University cannot release non-directory information concerning students to parents, prospective employers, government agencies, credit bureaus, etc., without the student's written consent. Students and alumni applying for jobs, credit, graduate school, etc., can expedite their application by providing the University with written permission to release their records, specifying which records and to which parties the release should be made. The University follows the policy that the student's written consent is required for the disclosure of grades, disciplinary action, or other information to parents regardless of whether the student is a dependent for federal income tax purposes. Students may also sign a waiver to allow parents access to their financial and academic student records.

The University has designated the following categories of information as directory information, which may at the University's discretion be released to the public without the student's consent: student's name and maiden name, address, email address, telephone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study and courses taken, number of units earned, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, Dean's List, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, all previous educational agencies or institutions attended by the student, current class schedule, church membership, and parent's names, addresses, email, and telephone listings.

It is the University's general policy not to release directory information regarding its students unless, in the judgment of the appropriate record custodian or other official with record access, such a release either serves a legitimate educational purpose or is not adverse to the student's interests and privacy. However, the student may request in writing that directory information not be released to the public without his/her written consent. Such requests must be submitted in writing to the Registrar's Office.

This notice is not intended to be fully explanatory of students' rights under the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). For additional information please see the FERPA information included in the registration packet (available online). Any student alleging failure of the University to comply with FERPA may file a complaint with the:

Family Education Rights & Privacy Act Office
United States Department of Education
600 Independence Avenue N.W.
Washington, DC 20202-4605.

The University maintains student transcripts for courses earned at LPU in perpetuity. Contact the Registrar's Office for questions regarding the records retention schedule.

RIGHT OF ACCESS TO EDUCATIONAL RECORD

With a few exceptions provided by law, students at Life Pacific University may see any of their educational records that they have not waived the right of access to upon request. The request must be made in writing and specify the records that the student desires to view. Access will generally be granted immediately after or shortly after submission of the request to the Registrar, but if a delay is necessary, access must be granted no later than 45 days after the request. With some limited exceptions, students are also entitled to copies (at the student's expense) of all records to which they have access. Students further have the right, under established procedures, to challenge the factual accuracy of the records and to enter their viewpoints in the records. Students may waive their right of access to recommendations and evaluations in the cases of admissions, application for employment, and nomination for awards.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

ACADEMIC FORGIVENESS POLICY

After five consecutive years of non-attendance, and re-admittance to the University, a student may request Academic Forgiveness based upon past academic performance. The request will be reviewed after the student has completed at least one semester. The student must complete 12 credits and earn a GPA of 2.75 for his/her request to be approved. When the student's request is approved, grades of "F", "FN", and optionally "D" for the courses from the prior attendance period will be removed from the student's Grade Point Average. However, the courses will remain on the student's official transcript designated with a special code for Academic Forgiveness. If the student requests forgiveness for a course or courses in which he/she has earned a grade of "D", the credits earned in any such course or courses will be removed from the total credits earned, and the student will receive no credit for the course.

A student who has Academic Forgiveness applied to his/her transcript will not be eligible for GPA academic honors (cum laude, magna cum laude, or summa cum laude). Academic Forgiveness must be applied for prior to graduation.

ACADEMIC LOAD

Undergraduate Academic Load

A full academic load is considered to be 12-17 units per semester. Eligibility to carry a load greater than 17 units is determined by the student's overall grade point average.

The cumulative GPA required to exceed the standard academic load is:

Units	GPA	Units	GPA
18	2.35	20	3.00
19	2.65	21+	Registrar Approval

Students wishing to carry a load greater than their GPA allows must submit an appeal to the Registrar prior to the start of the term by submitting the GPA Appeal form. Students who enroll in more units than allowable by their GPA, who do not file an appeal or whose appeals are denied will be removed from additional courses at the discretion of the Registrar. Students employed by the university are unable to take more than 18 units without the approval of their supervisor.

Graduate Academic Load

The courses that are in the graduate program are divided into two six-month semesters. Students taking a minimum of 9 units per semester are considered to be taking a full-time academic load.

ACADEMIC STANDING

A cumulative grade point average of 2.0 is required for graduation from an undergraduate program and 3.0 from a graduate program. Every student is expected to demonstrate his/her ability to progress toward a degree by achieving this minimum GPA requirement.

Undergraduate Academic Probation and Dismissal Policy

Academic Alert

If a student earns below a 2.0 for their term GPA while maintaining a 2.0 or higher cumulative GPA, they will be placed on Academic Alert status. A student who is on Academic Alert will be eligible to enroll in units up to the unit load, based on their cumulative GPA. If a student receives a term GPA below 2.0 for their next attempted semester, they will be placed on Academic Probation.

Academic Probation

Incoming students will be placed on Academic Probation if their incoming high school GPA is below a 2.5. Incoming transfer students with 16 or more academic college units will be placed on Academic Probation if their college cumulative GPA is below a 2.0.

First semester students will be placed on probation if their first term GPA is between 0.50 and 1.99. Continuing students will be placed on Academic Probation if (1) their cumulative GPA drops below 2.0, or (2) their semester GPA is below 2.0 for two consecutive semesters.

A student placed on Academic Probation is restricted from serving as a student employee, residence assistant, or student officer, and is limited to twelve (12) units. Students who have been on Academic Probation twice may be limited to 6 units.

Academic probation status may have implications for financial aid status, see page 31 for details, and those on academic probation are required to participate in the Principles of Christian Scholarship (PCS) program.

If a student leaves the University and at a later time returns, then his/her academic status will remain as it was when they separated from the institution. See section on "Academic Forgiveness" for exceptions to this policy. College work completed during the absence from LPU may be considered for re-admission purposes of academically dismissed students.

If a student on Academic Probation raises his/her cumulative GPA and makes satisfactory academic progress at the conclusion of the first term on probation, yet has not reached a cumulative 2.0, the student may be placed on continued probation. If at the conclusion of that term the student is able to bring his/her cumulative GPA to a 2.0 or above, he/she is removed from continued probation. If a cumulative 2.0 is not reached by that time, the student faces Academic Dismissal.

Any new student entering under academic probation will continue on probation for a second semester, if their first term GPA is between 1.0 and 2.0.

A student may not be eligible to receive federal or institutional funds while on Continued Probation. The academic committee has the discretion to limit someone who has been on probation twice during their time at LPU to only 6 units.

Academic Dismissal

Any new student with a first term GPA between a 0.00 and .49 will be academically dismissed. If the new student came in on Academic Probation, the student must earn at least a 1.0 in the first term in order to remain enrolled.

If a continuing student's GPA has not improved at the end of his/her first term on Academic Probation, or if the student has a third consecutive semester with a semester GPA below 2.0, the student will be academically dismissed. When academic dismissal occurs, a student must wait at least one semester before applying for reentrance to the University as a degree-seeking student and must meet all dismissal requirements.

Academic Appeal

A student who is affected by these policies yet believes that he/she has facts unknown to the Academic Committee, may appeal to be reinstated. To make an appeal, a student must submit a written statement to the Academic Affairs Office detailing: (1) the reasons for the unsatisfactory progress, (2) his/her intentions to maintain acceptable academic standing, and (3) methods he/she anticipates using to make progress towards his/her educational goals. If the appeal is granted, a student is eligible to return under probationary status.

Graduate Academic Probation and Dismissal Policy

If a student's cumulative GPA drops below a 3.0 at any time, they will be placed on immediate Academic Probation. The student must then earn a B- (2.7) in their next class as well as a 3.0 average in their first 3 classes on Probation. Students who meet the minimum grade requirement will continue to be monitored until their cumulative GPA rises to a 3.0 or higher. Note that a GPA of 3.0 is required for graduation.

If a student on probation fails to earn the minimum grade requirement, they will face dismissal. If a student is dismissed, they will be required to take a minimum of 6 months off and will be required to submit an appeal letter explaining their plan to succeed in order to be considered for re-entrance. Upon approval to return, the student will need to earn a B (3.0) in their first class back, as well as minimum of a 3.0 in their first three classes back from dismissal.

A student's academic progress can affect their financial aid eligibility. Please see the Satisfactory Academic Progress section under Financial Aid for further information.

AUDITING CLASSES

Audit status is offered to former students, enrolled students, and their spouses. Exceptions to this may be granted upon special request. Audit students may be included in the class only if the enrollment allows space for additional persons. Certain courses involving significant interaction between instructor and student may not be available to audit. Online courses are not eligible for auditing.

Audit students are not considered to be participants in class. Teachers are not expected to give personal or class time to auditors. Attendance rules do not apply, and no credit is given. Audit applications are available from the Registrar's Office. The cost is $50.00 per unit, plus any potential course fee(s).

LPU graduates and spouses of enrolled students may audit one course free of charge per semester with permission from the Registrar. Certain courses may not be available to audit for free and will be charged the regular audit fee of $50 per unit. If the course requires a lab fee, the audit student will be required to pay the course fee.

CREDIT HOUR POLICY

Life Pacific University operates under a semester credit hour system of approximately 15 weeks each semester (with an additional finals week for traditional courses) in the academic year or its equivalent. A class hour in a face-to-face class is defined as 50 minutes. The University's credit hour policy is guided by the following principles:

- Determination of the amount of student learning that occurs needs to focus on student achievement of learning outcomes rather than amount of seat time or assigned work.
- Differences between students' pace of learning, particularly between traditional and adult learners, means that different students may produce equivalent amounts of work over different lengths of time.
- Assignment of greater amounts of work does not necessarily result in increased learning.

The credit hour is the basic unit of measurement for university credit. A credit hour is an amount of work measured by verifiable student achievement of learning outcomes of significant depth and breadth to reasonably approximate no less than the 37.5 hours of student work (including 12.5 hours of class time) per unit of semester credit traditionally expected in a fifteen-week, face-to-face, academic setting. Class time includes academic engagement through student-content, student-instructor, and student-student interaction including lecture, discussion, and group work. Faculty establish office hours so that students know when they will be available.

An equivalent expectation of student achievement of learning outcomes shall be established for non-traditional forms of education. The University will determine assignment of credit hours by considering both the amount of work a typical student is expected to complete within a specified amount of academically engaged time and based on documented student learning aligned to that amount of academically engaged time for a typical student. While the amount of work (the average amount of time a student will engage in the learning activities to achieve the stated learning outcomes) provides a baseline for assigning credit hours, the focus must be on students' achievement of learning outcomes. For non-traditional courses, achievement of equivalent outcomes, not equivalent volume of work, is the primary concern.

Online and Hybrid courses

In an online environment, academically engaged time is viewed as the time needed to engage in learning activities including student-content, student-instructor, and student-student interaction mediated through technology. The structure of LPU's on-line classes requires substantial interaction between instructor and student and among students through online discussion and timely feedback. The discussion board is a primary element, with each course including discussion prompts each week. Student activity within the discussion board and the quality of responses are part of their course grade. Online instructors are evaluated per the amount of interaction they have with students including email, presence in the discussion board, and quality and timeliness of feedback on student work. Faculty establish office hours so that students know when they will be available by phone. Estimation of amount of work in an online or hybrid course is monitored to ensure equivalency with the credit hour standard and informed by the following:

- o The actual time spent in live instruction. Live instruction may be synchronous instructor-led online time and/or residential learning in the classroom that occurs in hybrid courses.
- o The time required to consume instructional content that promotes academic engagement (e.g., PowerPoint presentations, audio/video recordings, and articles in electronic formats). The run time for required media learning assets is calculated on a 1:1 ratio to instructional time; however, estimations for expected multiple viewings are considered as well.
- o Out-of-class work hours are based on the approximate time required for an average student to complete assignments (e.g., reading textbooks, writing papers, and completing projects).

Internships

Internship courses involve extended times of service learning. As such, one internship unit involves 75 hours of student work under the supervision of an internship director. These hours include all the time necessary to serve within the internship environment, complete required assignments, and meet with internship director.

Labs

One laboratory credit is defined as a minimum of 3 class hours of work each week in a laboratory under the supervision of a lab supervisor/instructor and an expectation of 1 class hour of additional out-of-class student work each week.

Practicums

Practicum courses require face-to-face supervised clinical experience. This hands-on training augments and enhances the academic knowledge acquired in the classroom. One practicum hour involves 90 direct clinical hours of student work under the supervision of a practicum coordinator or clinical director.

Graduate Courses

Life Pacific University's graduate programs enroll in-service adult students. The University distinguishes between credit assignment for graduate and undergraduate courses primarily through the expectation of student achievement of higher-level learning outcomes rather than increased amount of time or volume of work.

The University reviews the accuracy of credit hour assignments through:

- The APCR or appropriate academic committee review of courses
- The Academic Affairs Office's semesterly review of course outlines for current courses
- Each Program Review's analysis (through the time-to-task evaluation tool) of courses specific to that program to ensure alignment with the credit hour policy.

COURSE CANCELLATION

The University attempts to avoid canceling courses; however, cancellations may occur when enrollment fails to achieve the minimum number of students. In the case of a required course cancellation, the student should contact the Registrar's Office to develop a solution if it is required for the student to graduate during the coming year. If the course is not required for graduating during the coming year, the student should select an alternative course required in their program of study.

COURSE EVALUATIONS

LPU is continually reviewing courses in order to improve them for future students. Student feedback is an invaluable part of this review process. During the last week of each course, students are requested to participate in course evaluations.

CREDIT FOR PRIOR LEARNING

Undergraduate students who can demonstrate college-level learning through experience are eligible to apply for Credit for Prior Learning. Life Pacific University follows the Council of Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL) standards in evaluating prior learning. Students must receive permission to submit portfolios by February 1 and the completed portfolio must be submitted by May 1 in order to walk at graduation. Credit for the units earned will be applied to the transcript after the portfolio has been reviewed and approved for credit by a faculty member with expertise in the relevant subject. Abiding by limits established by WSCUC and SCHEV, LPU limits the amount of credit awarded for life and work experience to no more than 25% of the credits required for a degree. There is a $75 per unit fee for all credits attempted to cover evaluation costs. More information is available from the Academic Affairs Office.

Credit for Prior Learning is based on the following:

1. The student must be admitted to Life Pacific University and be in good academic standing before evaluation of credit for self-acquired competency.
2. Learning must parallel courses in the curriculum in order to be recognized as specific-course credit. Learning of college-level caliber that cannot be equated to specific course content is awarded as general-elective credit.
3. Credit awarded will be based upon faculty assessment of a Prior Learning Assessment Portfolio.
4. There will be a fee charged for assessment of a portfolio.
5. The maximum amount that can be earned through Credit Prior Learning is 25% of the credits required for a degree.

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY REQUIREMENT

Effective, clear communication must go hand-in-hand with academic and professional success. For this reason, the University places a strong emphasis on a student's ability to accurately communicate to others.

The institution will place students in an English class based on the writing placement exam administered at LPU Pre-Registration Events. These exams are administered by the institution and scored by a team of writing supervisors (Librarians and Academic Support Center members). High school English class grades may also be used to help discern the most appropriate English class for a given student, in addition to standardized test scores if the student chooses to provide them. Transfer credits and AP exam results will also be taken into consideration when placing a student and determining the need for the placement exam.

The Writing Placement Exam will be administered at all Pre-Registration events live to students. In the unlikely event that a student does not attend any of those events, the exam will be proctored to them during NSO or the first week of classes.

Based on the results of the placement exam, students will be placed in ENG 101 English Composition and Grammar or ENG 103 English Composition and Research. Students needing additional writing support may also be required to concurrently enroll in the Writing Lab.

For undergraduate students, English Composition & Research is required for all students who wish to pursue their studies beyond the freshman year. Students are not advised to enroll in any subject above the 100 level until English Composition & Research is successfully completed. All students must have completed English Composition & Research before entering upper division studies. Students who have completed an accredited transferable college level course equivalent to English Composition & Research have fulfilled the requirement.

GRADING

The Grade Point System is used with letter grades translated to a numerical value. Grades are usually available within three weeks of the conclusion of each course and can be accessed online via the LPU Portal system. Grade point averages are not rounded.

Undergraduate Grade Point System

Grade.....	Grade Point
A Excellent.....	4.00

Failure

Students are permitted to repeat a course one time to make up an "F" or "FN" grade. After the second failed attempt, the student must appeal to the Academic Committee to re-enroll in the course(s).

Grade Change

If a professor finds it necessary to change a student's grade for a legitimate reason, a grade change can be issued. A student has up to 6 months after a grade has been issued to appeal to the professor for a grade change.

Incomplete Grade

The grade "IN" signifies incomplete but otherwise satisfactory work. If the incomplete work is not submitted by the due date of the IN contract, the "IN" is changed to the grade the student earned, averaging a zero in place of the missing work.

Incomplete Policy

Students are expected to complete all course requirements within the duration of each course. The instructor submits final course grades two weeks after the end of the course. If a student cannot complete all work by this deadline, they may appeal to receive an Incomplete (IN). A grade of "IN" signifies incomplete but otherwise satisfactory work. The request for an IN is considered by written appeal to the Registrar's Office, and reviewed with the professor, and only when extenuating circumstances prevented the completion of the work on time. If the appeal is granted, the student will have up to 30 days from the last day of class to complete the remaining work. If the incomplete work is not made up by the newly scheduled completion date, the "IN" is changed to the grade the student earned averaging a zero in place of the missing work.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Students planning to graduate from Life Pacific University must fulfill all course requirements for their chosen program and the following requirements:

Undergraduate Programs

- Minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0,
- A Christian testimony consistent with Scripture,
- Fulfillment of all contracts with the University,
- Completion of all curriculum requirements,
- 50% of the A.A. program from LPU.
- 30% of the B.A. program and at least 50% of the major from LPU,
- Completion of ministry formation requirements. Students who fail their last semester of ministry formation are not eligible to graduate.

- Submission of a graduation application to the Registrar's Office.

Graduate Programs

- Minimum graduate cumulative GPA of 3.0.
- A Christian testimony consistent with Scripture,
- Fulfillment of all contracts with the University,
- Completion of curriculum requirements,
- Approved and Completed Capstone Project.
- Submission of a graduation application to the Registrar's Office.

Students planning to graduate must notify the Registrar by submitting a completed graduation application no later than February 1 of the academic year in which they plan to graduate. Attendance is strongly recommended and encouraged at the Baccalaureate and Commencement services, rehearsals, and graduate meetings. Students who participate in Commencement are required to wear university issued regalia.

Students who are unable to participate in the baccalaureate or commencement services may request to graduate in absentia. The potential graduate must notify the Registrar's Office by February 1 to avoid being charged the full graduation fee.

If a student withdraws from the University and later returns to graduate, he/she must meet the requirements in effect under the most recent university catalog.

The University reserves the right to deny graduation to any student whose attitude or testimony is contrary to University's standards.

Degree Posting and Diplomas

LPU offers four degree posting dates during the academic year.

- August posting date – graduates have completed coursework by the final day of the summer term will have their degree posted with the August posting date.
- December posting date - graduates have completed coursework by the final day of the fall term will have their degree posted with the December posting date.
- May posting date – graduates that have their course work completed prior to the May commencement ceremony will have their degree posted with the May posting date.
- June posting date – graduates that have all course work prior to June 30th will have their degree posted with the June posting date.

Diplomas are typically processed and mailed out to students within two months of the degree being posted. All indebtedness to the university must be met in order to receive a diploma.

Election to Delta Epsilon Chi

The University's faculty elects a limited number of students from both the graduate and undergraduate graduating classes each year to this Honor Society of the Association of Biblical Higher Education (ABHE) based upon individual scholastic achievement, approved Christian character, and demonstrated leadership ability.

Participation in Graduation

Life Pacific University holds one graduation ceremony at the end of the spring semester every year. Graduates who participate in Commencement are required to wear university issued regalia.

All graduation requirements must be met in order to participate in graduation ceremonies. If a student still has work pending from other schools / transcripts outstanding, they may appeal to participate. These appeals may be granted only when the student has no more than 6 units remaining to be completed and is enrolled in those courses at the time of graduation. Graduate students who are in their final course, will be permitted to participate in the Commencement and Hooding Ceremonies.

Undergraduate Commencement Honors

Students are selected for undergraduate graduation honors according to their individual merit. In order to be considered for graduation honors, a student must:

1. Exemplify excellent Christian character in attitude and spirit;
2. Have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.50;

Graduation with honors requires the following Grade Point Average (GPA):

cum laude	3.50
magna cum laude	3.70
summa cum laude	3.90

LIFE PACIFIC UNIVERSITY TRANSCRIPT REQUESTS

A transcript of courses completed will be mailed according to the student's written instruction. Online transcript requests are completed through the National Student Clearinghouse. Both paper and electronic transcripts are available and require 5-7 business days for standard processing with options for rush requests (will incur additional fees).

Records from LIFE pre-1992, LIFE East, and Mt. Vernon, may require an additional 2 business days for processing. Please allow additional time for weekends and holidays.

SPECIAL HONORS AND RECOGNITION

President and Provost's Lists

At the end of each undergraduate semester, students with a 4.0 term GPA will be placed on the President's List and students with a 3.65-3.99 term GPA will be placed on the Provost's List. To qualify for the President's List or Provost's List, students must have completed an academic load of at least 12 units and successfully passed his or her ministry formation for the semester.

The purpose of these lists is to recognize and encourage scholastic achievement.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Academic Transfer of Letter Grades Policy

Transcripts from accredited colleges and universities are evaluated on a course-for-course basis and calculated in the student's cumulative GPA. Undergraduate coursework from unaccredited colleges and institutes that have been approved for transfer will be brought in for the credit value only without letter grades.

Undergraduate Programs

Undergraduate students who have completed courses at other accredited institutions may be able to transfer courses into Life Pacific University. Transcripts from other institutions will be evaluated to determine their relationship to requirements at LPU. Official transcripts from any institution previously attended must be submitted directly to LPU. Transcripts will not be accepted as official unless they are received electronically or sealed (unopened) from the school.

- Credit is evaluated on a course-for-course basis.
- A transfer course must satisfy at least 2/3 content of an LPU course and be worth at least 51% of the same credit total to replace that course, otherwise it will be brought in as elective units.
- Only coursework with a grade of C- or better is transferable and calculated into the student's GPA. (A student may petition for up to 7 units with a D grade if the course(s) is not a pre-requisite for another course and it is not part of the student's major.)
- The number of transferable credits is restricted by the graduation policy requiring that a minimum of 25% of the degree must be completed at LPU.
- A student cannot transfer more than 49% of the required units for a major to earn that major at LPU.
- Quarter units will transfer at approximately 67% (2/3 ratio) in order to accurately reflect the course work being completed.

Credit by Examination

Credit may be granted to entering or enrolled undergraduate students through external examinations and approved military service schools. Credits by examination yield no grade points. Such credits may partially fulfill General Education Requirements for graduation. External examinations include but are not limited to: Advanced Placement (AP) Program examinations of the College Entrance Examinations Board; general and subject College Level Examination Program (CLEP); and Defense Activity for Traditional Education Support (DANTES). A maximum of 24 units can be earned through credit by examination.

Advanced Placement

Credit for the AP examinations will be granted in an amount equal to the 100-200-level course or courses in the particular discipline tested. The student must score a three or higher for a course to be transferable. Transfer units are based on the score received and test taken.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

Credit for CLEP will be granted if the examination is passed with scores at the 50th percentile or above. Transfer units are based on the test being successfully completed.

Military Credit

Credit will be granted for satisfactory completion of:

- Military service schools in the amount recommended by the American Council of Education for academic courses only.
- Dante's Credit: Elective credit for DANTES Subject Standardized Tests (DSSTs) will be granted for college-level academic subjects (non-vocational/technical courses) using the minimum score and credit amount recommendations of the American Council on Education.

Unaccredited Coursework

Granting of credit is sometimes possible for those who have transcripts from recognized but non-accredited institutions. Based on established criteria, a provisional evaluation is made and given to the student. Letter grades are not entered from unaccredited institutions nor calculated into the student's GPA.

Credits are also accepted from established educational and training programs with whom LPU has established formal agreements upon review of course quality and rigor. An evaluation letter will be sent to the student showing those courses that have been accepted.

Graduate Programs

Graduate-level courses taken at other colleges and universities may be transferred into the Graduate program if they meet at least two-thirds of the content of a course in the program and were completed within ten years of when the student begins work in the LPU Graduate program. Life Pacific University transfers coursework from colleges and universities that are nationally or regionally accredited. Only course work with a B- or better grade will be accepted. Upon request, an evaluation will be sent to the student showing those courses that have been accepted for transfer. A maximum of 25% of the program can be transferred.

Transfer to External Institutions

Students seeking to transfer coursework to other institutions need to contact the receiving institution to request a formal evaluation of the coursework completed at LPU. Institutions determine their own standards for how the curriculum taken at LPU may incorporate into the curriculum structure of the receiving institution.

VETERAN INFORMATION

Life Pacific University is approved by the California State Approving Agency for the training of veterans who are entitled to educational benefits under existing laws. Eligible veterans and their dependents seeking educational training may qualify to use Title 38, Chapters 30, 31, 33, 35, and 1606/1607. Refer to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs for eligibility criteria.

Students with Veteran benefits including active duty, or dependent eligible for VA Chapter Benefits 31 and 33 will have their fees deferred while being certified by the VA and the campus Veterans Certifying Official and no late fees shall be incurred. Life Pacific University understands and is in compliance with 38 U.S.C. §3679(e).

A veteran wishing to use these benefits should complete an application for Veterans Administration benefits online at <http://www.gibill.va.gov/>. Students can use benefits towards an Associate, Bachelor, or Master of Arts program.

Veterans will receive a red, white, and blue cord at graduation to honor their contribution to the United States of America.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY

A student who, for any reason, finds it necessary to withdraw from the university during the course of the semester must do so through the Registrar's Office. The student must complete the exit interview process and the University Withdrawal form. If the student is facing extenuating circumstances and needs to withdraw after the withdrawal deadline, they must file an appeal. Students who fail to comply with these regulations will receive "FN" (failure, nonattendance) grades on their student record.

Withdrawals conducted prior to the start of a semester, or during the add / drop period for the course will result in all applicable courses being removed from that terms schedule.

Students wishing to re-enter LPU at a later time should follow the re-entrant admission process. See page 19.

YEAR IN SCHOOL CLASSIFICATION

An undergraduate student's year in school is determined by the number of units that they have successfully completed.

Units	Year in School
1-28	Freshman
29-58	Sophomore

Units	Year in School

UNIVERSITY FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM FINANCIAL AID & SAP POLICY

All students admitted to the degree programs at LPU may apply for financial assistance. The student's financial aid will be determined and awarded by the Financial Aid Office. To begin the process, please note the following steps:

1. Apply for admission to Life Pacific University. All applicants for financial aid must be admitted to the University.
2. Complete the online Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form by going to www.fafsa.ed.gov. A FSA ID is needed to electronically sign the application and can be requested by going to www.fafsa.ed.gov. Additionally, Life Pacific University's Title IV School Code (016029) will need to be included on the application before the University can receive the information.
3. Complete any supplemental documentation as requested by the Financial Aid Office in a timely manner.

TYPES OF AID PROGRAMS

Federal Pell Grant

The Federal Pell Grant Program provides federal funds for students of families that qualify. To be eligible, an applicant must be a United States citizen or permanent resident, demonstrate financial need, and must not have previously received a bachelor's degree. Students may apply for the Pell Grant by filling out a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Federal SEOG

In addition to the Federal Pell Grant, the Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) is available to certain Pell Grant recipients. The application process is the same for all federal and state aid.

Scholarships & Grants

Institutional scholarships are available from LPU. There are a variety of LPU scholarship and grant opportunities that admitted students may apply for. Contact the Financial Aid Office for more information.

Endowed Scholarships

Endowed scholarships based on financial eligibility, achievement, and student interests are available through the University. Online application process occurs between February and March. Active students will receive a notice from the Office of Advancement via email at the time applications are available.

State of California Grants

The Cal Grant program provides awards for California resident applicants who demonstrate financial eligibility and meet GPA requirements. Students must be enrolled at the San Dimas Campus or in the Online Undergrad Program. California resident students may apply by filling out the FAFSA and a GPA verification form. To be eligible for an award, the student must submit both the FAFSA application and the GPA verification form by March 2.

Loans

Life Pacific University participates in the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program. Students and parents may be able to borrow up to the cost of education through federal loans. To be eligible for a federal loan, students must fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Private loans are also available to students to assist with the cost of education. For more detailed information regarding private loans please contact the Financial Aid Office.

FEDERAL AID DISBURSEMENTS

After students have completed their financial aid paperwork in its entirety, and once the disbursement date established by the University has been reached, the student's aid will be disbursed to the students' accounts. Students attending both the fall and spring semesters will receive one disbursement after the beginning of each term. Financial aid is generally awarded for the full year and will be disbursed evenly each semester.

Refund Distribution

The government has established a statutory schedule to determine the amount of Federal Title IV funds a student has earned as of the date he/she ceases attendance. The amount of Title IV aid earned is based on the amount of time the student spent in academic attendance. Once institutional and/or student liability has been determined, the refund is distributed to the Federal programs in the following order:

1. Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan;
2. Federal Direct Subsidized Loan;
3. Federal Direct PLUS Loan;
4. Federal Pell Grant;
5. Federal SEOG
6. Other federal, state, private, or institutional student financial assistance
7. Student

RETURN TO TITLE IV FUNDS

After the add/drop period, when a student stops attending all their classes during the semester, depending on the circumstances, it may be classified as a "withdrawal," or "dismissal" from the university. When a student is considered withdrawn from the program, the Financial Aid Office is required to complete R2T4 calculations for the payment period and return all unearned federal aid to the Department of Education.

For the full policy for return to Title IV, please see the university website for the "Withdrawal From School and Financial Aid-Return to Title IV" information or contact the Financial Aid Office.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY

Students applying for financial aid must demonstrate satisfactory academic progress in their degree program. Each student's academic progress will be evaluated at least once each year as part of determining his/her eligibility for federal financial aid. The U.S. Department of Education has minimum requirements to which Life Pacific University adheres, including students maintaining an institutional GPA of 2.0, making progress towards completing their degree, and completing their degree within a specific timeframe.

For more information regarding the University's satisfactory academic progress policy as it pertains to receiving federal financial aid, please see the SAP Policy on the Life Pacific University website or contact the Financial Aid Office.

GRADUATE PROGRAM FINANCIAL AID & SAP POLICY

All students admitted to the degree programs at LPU may apply for financial assistance. The student's financial aid will be determined and awarded by the Financial Aid Office. To begin the process, please note the following steps:

1. Apply for admission to Life Pacific University. All applicants for financial aid must be admitted to the University.
2. Complete the online Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form by going to www.fafsa.ed.gov. A FSA ID is needed to electronically sign the application and can be requested by going to www.fafsa.ed.gov. Additionally, Life Pacific University's Title IV School Code (016029) will need to be included on the application before the University can receive the information.
3. Complete any supplemental documentation as requested by the Financial Aid Office in a timely manner.

TYPES OF AID PROGRAMS

Institutional Scholarships

Scholarships are based on financial need and are awarded for the full program once a student has been accepted to the graduate program. Students who are awarded a scholarship will receive an award letter from the Graduate Scholarship Committee.

Loans

Life Pacific University participates in the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program. Students and parents may be able to borrow up to the cost of education through federal loans. To be eligible for a federal loan, students must fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Private loans are also available to students to assist with the cost of education. For more detailed information regarding private loans please contact the Financial Aid Office.

FINANCIAL AID DISBURSEMENT FOR NON-STANDARD TERM PROGRAMS (BORROWER BASED ACADEMIC YEAR)

The Master of Arts Program is a non-standard term program consisting of 13 classes taken back-to-back in modules over a two-year period. As a non-standard term program, financial aid is awarded according to the Borrower Based Academic Year (BBAY) model. A student's academic year will begin when they start attending and earning credits in coursework. The 1st BBAY will be satisfied upon completion of 18-24 units and at least 30 weeks of instructional time. Based on the BBAY, students will take 18-24 units during their first academic/financial aid award year, and their final 18-24 units in the 2nd academic/financial aid award year. If students are eligible to transfer in coursework that waives graduate coursework, their 2nd BBAY will be the remainder of the graduate coursework.

Refund Distribution

The government has established a statutory schedule to determine the amount of Federal Title IV funds a student has earned as of the date he/she ceases attendance. The amount of Title IV aid earned is based on the amount of time the student spent in academic attendance. Once institutional and/or student liability has been determined, the refund is distributed to the Federal programs in the following order:

1. Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan;
2. Other federal, state, private, or institutional student financial assistance
3. Student

RETURN TO TITLE IV FUNDS & PROGRAMS OFFERED IN MODULES

When a student is considered withdrawn from the program, the Financial Aid Office is required to complete R2T4 calculations for the payment period and return all unearned federal aid to the Department of Education.

Because this program is structured with the majority of classes being 8 weeks in length, it would not be possible to begin a future class within the 45 calendar day rule, therefore, if a student drops a class and it is more than 45 days until the next course, they will be considered withdrawn from the program, R2T4 calculations will be performed and all unearned federal aid will be returned to the Department of Education.

Return after Withdrawal

- A withdrawn student may return within 180 days to the same program prior to the end of the payment period or period of enrollment. The student will continue their BBAY and be eligible for any Title IV funds for which they were eligible prior to the withdrawal.
NOTE: Financial aid will be prorated to only recover the remaining eligibility for the year in which the student withdrew (i.e., if a student is eligible for $10,000 and already received $5,000, they will only be eligible for $5,000 for their return payment period).
- A withdrawn student returning to the same program after 180 days will begin a new BBAY and will need to ensure that they have the current financial aid paperwork for the aid year in which they return.
- If a student intends to return after 180 days with a balance, they must resolve any balances prior to reentry.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

Students applying for financial aid must demonstrate Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) in their degree program. Academic progress is measured by qualitative (grade-based) and quantitative (Time-related) standards set forth by the federal government and will be used to determine eligibility for participation in Federal Student Aid at Life Pacific University. Each student's academic progress will be evaluated at the end of every payment period for quantitative standards and after each course for qualitative standards as part of determining their eligibility for financial aid. Because the Master of Arts program is a non-standard term program, Life Pacific University must check satisfactory academic progress after each course once grades become available. The federal government mandates that students must be making SAP toward a degree in order to maintain financial aid eligibility.

Failure to Maintain Standards

The academic progress of aid applicants is reviewed at the end of each course. Students failing to meet the minimum qualitative or quantitative standards required for maintaining satisfactory academic progress will be placed on Financial Aid Warning and will continue to receive Title IV aid for one payment period. The student must make SAP at the next payment period, or he or she will be placed on Financial Aid Suspension for one more payment period after an appeal. The student will be notified of this status and requirements necessary to meet SAP by the end of the next payment period. If at the end of the next payment period (time of review) the student has not met SAP standards the student will no longer be eligible to receive financial aid.

Students will also experience that future financial aid is postponed resulting in coursework that requires payment from non-financial aid sources, unless the student has remaining financial aid eligibility. Remaining financial aid eligibility is influenced by the amount of aid initially accepted by a student as well as the length of postponement of future financial aid disbursements and BBAY.

Appeal Process

Appeals for re-establishing eligibility may be based on extenuating circumstances that prohibited the student from meeting SAP standards during the warning period.

TRADITIONAL UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES | SAN DIMAS CAMPUS

The primary campus of Life Pacific University is located in the beautiful suburban community of San Dimas, California. The facilities include the Simonson Center (housing the Chapel, President's Office, Library, Admissions Office, Financial Aid, Student Accounts, and other administrative offices), administrative and classroom buildings, the Café, four residence halls, and the Hicks Student Center. Nestled against the foothills of the San Gabriel mountains, the city and campus are within a reasonable driving distance of downtown Los Angeles, the beaches of the Pacific Ocean, various lakes, and the ski slopes of the nearby mountains. The campus is within walking distance of restaurants, coffee shops, shopping centers, supermarkets, dry cleaners, and many other services. A full-service hospital is also located one block west of the campus.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

For application requirements and process for the San Dimas undergraduate program, please see page 15.

COSTS AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

University tuition and related costs should be considered well in advance of registration. All educational expenses will be the student's responsibility. A schedule of costs is available prior to each year. These will be distributed to students and parents so that proper preparation may be made for the upcoming year. In addition to the fee schedule that follows, students should expect to pay between $250 and $800 for books per semester. Book lists and associated costs are located on the student's schedule accessible via the LPU Portal. Tuition may increase in subsequent years, and students will be notified of any tuition rate changes.

Traditional Undergraduate Program Tuition & Fees

Fees are subject to change and are refundable only through the first full week of classes.

- Block Tuition (12 to 18 units per semester)$10,584.00
- Tuition (units under 12 or over 18) $882.00
- Summer Tuition (per unit) $470.00
- Audit Fee (per unit) $50.00
- Housing & Meals per semester (varies by meal plan selection) $6,075.00
- Single Occupancy Housing fee per semester $1,000.00
- Directed Study Fee (per unit, in addition to tuition) $150.00
- Incomplete Contract Fee (per course) $150.00
- Graduation Fee (participating in Commencement) $175.00
- Graduation Fee (in absentia) $75.00
- Applied Music Fee (per applied class) $325.00
- Lab Fee (varies by class) $30-80
- Orientation Fee (incoming students only) $150.00
- Parking Fee (per semester) $200.00
- Payment Plan Fee (when paying in installments) $50.00
- Credit for Prior Learning Fee (per unit) $75.00
- Student Services fee (per semester. 7 units or more or living on campus) $475.00
- Athletic Fee per semester $500.00
- Transcript Fee $7.50

Required Prepayments

- Campus housing security deposit $200.00
- Enrollment Deposit $200.00

Tuition Payment Plans

Students can either pay-in-full or choose the installment payment plan and make four equal payments over the course of the semester. A payment plan fee of $50 will be assessed for students choosing this second option. For both new and continuing students, the first payment is due August 1st for the fall term and January 2nd for the spring term.

Unpaid Accounts

A student may not register for courses, receive any diploma, or participate in graduation ceremonies until all financial obligations have been satisfied in accordance with the University's financial policies. Unpaid accounts may be submitted to an outside collection agency.

REFUNDS

Housing & Meal Plans

The housing security deposit is due with the Housing Application. This deposit is refundable in full for new students who have chosen not to, or are unable to, live in the residence hall, and if written notification is given to Student Accounts by August 1 for the fall semester or December 1 for the spring semester. Once a student has moved into the residence hall, the security deposit is only refunded if established check-out procedures have been followed at the time of final check out. Any room damages and fines attributed to the student must be paid by the student in order to keep the security deposit at $200 until they no longer live-in campus housing. When a student completes a final check out any room damages and fines attributed to the student will be deducted from this deposit. After June 1st continuing students who participated in room draw and who desire to move off campus will forfeit their entire deposit.

Room Charge Refunds

Withdrawal Date	Housing Charge Penalty
Through 3rd week of class	20% Penalty
Through the fifth week of class	40% penalty
Through the seventh week of class	60% penalty
After the seventh week of class	100% penalty

Board Charge Refunds

Withdrawal Date	Housing Charge Penalty
Through 12 th week of class	Prorated weekly
After the 12 th week of class	No refund given

Enrollment Deposit

The $200 tuition deposit required for those applicants who complete the application process prior to the application deadline is refundable until August 1 for the fall semester or December 1 for the spring semester. If an applicant chooses not to attend, he or she must submit a written request for a refund of their enrollment deposit to the Student Accounts Office by August 1 for the fall semester and December 1 for the spring semester. For all applicants applying after the deadline, the Enrollment Deposit is due immediately and is not refundable except in the case where the applicant is denied admission to the University.

Tuition Refunds

If a student decides to withdraw from a course, they must first notify the Registrar's and Financial Aid offices. Whether or not a refund is given, and the amount, will be determined by the e-mail notification date, or postmark for standard mail. If a student does not officially withdraw from a course, they will receive a grade of "FN" (failure, non-attendance) and forfeit the tuition for that course.

When withdrawing from or dropping a course, regardless of the reason, the possible effect on financial aid should be considered. For students receiving any form of aid, please contact the Financial Aid Office before dropping a course(s).

Institutional Financial Penalties for Withdrawal & Classes Dropped

Fall and Spring Full Semester Course Add / Drop Deadline

The last day to add or drop a course without tuition penalty or withdrawal grade is the Wednesday of the second week of classes. A student may withdraw from courses after the add/drop deadline but will incur tuition penalties as described below. See the Academic Calendar for specific dates.

Withdrawal Date	Tuition Penalty	Grade
Before the Add/Drop Deadline	No Tuition Penalty	removed from transcript
Through the third week of class	20% tuition penalty	W
Through the fifth week of class	40% tuition penalty	W

Through the seventh week of class	60% tuition penalty	W
After the seventh week of class	100% tuition penalty	W
Last day for withdrawal with "W" Grade	Friday of Week 11	W

Lab fees, applied fees, and audit units are nonrefundable after the last day to add classes. The University reserves the right to override the refund policy when extenuating circumstances exist.

8 Week Online Course Add / Drop Deadlines

Students may add or drop a course during the first full week of classes without any penalty or withdrawal grade assigned to his/her transcript. Courses may be dropped after the first full week of classes but will incur tuition penalties as described below. See the Academic Calendar for specific dates.

Withdrawal Date	Tuition Penalty	Grade
Before the Add/Drop Deadline	No Tuition Penalty	removed from transcript
Through the second week of class	25% tuition penalty	W
Through the third week of class	50% tuition penalty	W
Through the fourth week of class	75% tuition penalty	W
After the fourth week of class	100% tuition penalty	W
Last day for withdrawal with "W" Grade	Sunday of Week 5	W

Summer Course Add / Drop Deadlines

Students may add or drop a course during the first full week of classes without any penalty or withdrawal grade assigned to his/her transcript. Courses may be dropped after the first full week of classes but will incur tuition penalties as described below. See the Academic Calendar for specific dates.

Full Summer Term classes follow the same financial penalty schedule as the full semester listed above. Eight-week online classes follow the online financial penalty schedule as listed above.

Refund of Credit Balances

Refunds occur when payments applied to a student's account, including financial aid, exceed charges. When a student's account has a credit balance a refund check is automatically processed. Refund checks are normally mailed within 14 days from the date the credit balance first appeared on the student's account.

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

Second Bachelor's Degree in Biblical Studies

A second-degree program (39 units) for students who have completed a B.A. or B.S. from another accredited college in a field other than Bible, Theology, or Religion (see page 81).

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION & ASSESSMENT

All new students are required to attend the NSO program upon arrival. Students enrolled in the First-Year Seminar course receive partial fulfillment of course requirements for participation in both orientation days. As part of the NSO program, all new students are required to complete a Bible Knowledge Assessment, Critical Thinking & Numeracy Assessment, Library Assessment and the Beginning College Survey of Student Engagement. See page 41 for additional information on the NSO program.

ACADEMIC ADVISING AND REGISTRATION

New Student Academic Advising & Registration

New incoming students receive registration information prior to the start of each semester, detailing what classes are available to them and how they should go about planning their course load. New students are provided with transcript evaluations, if applicable, as well as a suggested course layout. During a new student's first registration, the Registrar's Office staff work with and advise each new student via phone and/or email. Registration for classes is completed by the Registrar's Office, prior to the student attending orientation.

Continuing Student Advising & Registration

Advising for continuing students is available by appointment to all lower division students through the Registrar's office. The Registrar's Office reviews each student's degree audit, identifying lower division courses remaining to complete the student's degree and makes course recommendations based on the suggested course completion layout.

Upper division students are assigned to a faculty based on each student's declared major for the duration of their time at LPU. Upper division students are required to meet with faculty advisors prior to each semester's registration in order to receive their registration access code.

Student can expect a response from their academic advisor within two business days. If a student is uncertain who their advisor is, they should contact the Registrar's Office. Students who are on Academic Alert or Academic Probation are required to meet with the Registrar's Office for advising.

All students are expected to register on the dates set aside for registration. Before a student is eligible to register for the next term, he or she must be cleared with student accounts. Students with an outstanding balance may be restricted from registering until financial arrangements have been made with the Student Account Office. See Financial Information page 36, for costs and payment plans. Lower division students receive assistance in scheduling from the Registrar's Office if needed, while upper division students are assigned a faculty advisor to consult for their registration.

Continuing or reentering students who are unable to finalize their registration on these dates may complete late registration no later than the deadline to add regular classes. Late registrants run the risk of full class rosters and may need to adjust their class schedule accordingly. Class attendance is not permitted until registration is complete, which includes financial payment. Professors may begin recording attendance the first day of class and absences may impact grades.

Upper Division Studies

Students are required to complete at least 53 units of coursework and at least 75% of their lower division requirements before enrolling in upper division studies. Students who have completed their lower division requirements will be reviewed for approval to enroll in upper division studies.

CLASS SCHEDULE

LPU offers a full program of study through various modalities.

Face to Face Courses

Courses are offered Monday through Friday in the morning, afternoon and evening. Courses are offered in both block and two day a week schedules. Not all courses are offered in each semester. Degree audits will reflect the semester a course is offered.

Online Courses

Life Pacific University offers a few of the courses in its traditional programs in an online modality each fall and spring semesters. Once enrolled, students can enter their class at anytime and anywhere they can access a computer with an internet connection. The classes feature a high degree of interaction between the student and instructor and among fellow students. Students connect to the classroom four or five days a week. The instructor will post brief lectures and assignments to help students understand the material and to stimulate discussion. Students submit responses and research, receive feedback from the instructor, and discuss what they are learning with fellow students.

Directed Studies

Directed studies are courses conducted independent of the classroom in a one-on-one or small group setting with faculty. Directed studies are available through appeal to or by assignment from the Academic Committee and have an additional $150 per unit fee. Appeals must be made at least 30 days before the beginning of the term.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENT & COURSE WITHDRAWALS

Students are expected to attend classes regularly. Consistent attendance and punctuality are assets for academic success.

Faculty members are authorized to develop and implement attendance policies that affect student grades and to determine if tardiness or absences are excused or unexcused. Faculty members will inform students of attendance policies, if applicable, for specific courses in the Course Outline. It is incumbent upon the student to read and follow the attendance policy established by the faculty.

Failure due to Non-Attendance

In addition to individual faculty attendance policies, the following campus-wide policy applies: Faculty should withdraw any student from class who is no longer progressing in the class due to prolonged absence (three or more consecutive weeks or seven consecutive instructional days) or who has, at any time after the midpoint of the course, missed 50% of the scheduled class time to that point. Absences may, depending on the faculty, be determined by failure to submit assignments, incomplete in-class activities, or, in an online course, failure to submit online discussion posts for the purposes of establishing the last date of attendance for financial aid purposes. The student will receive an FN (failure, non-attendance) grade and forfeit the tuition for that course. The Registrar's Office will send notification to students who have been withdrawn from class in this manner. The submission of an FN grade by a professor supersedes a student's ability to withdraw during the drop period with a W (withdraw) grade.

Course Withdrawals

A student may withdraw from classes without grade penalty at any time after the Add/Drop Period through the 11th week of the semester. For tuition and grade penalties, see page 37. The student must submit a Class Withdrawal form to the Registrar's Office. The student will receive a W (withdrawal) grade in that course. A student who never attends or stops attending a course for which he or she is officially registered without following the accepted procedures will receive an F or FN grade in that course.

FACULTY AVAILABILITY

Students are encouraged to meet with faculty when questions arise about their academic programs or academic progress even if it is outside of "classroom time". Faculty availability is posted outside of each faculty member's office. Students can also request a meeting with faculty via email to the faculty member directly or by contacting the Academic Office.

FOUR SQUARE MINISTERIAL LICENSE

Life Pacific University graduates are eligible to apply for a ministerial license with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. Since the founding of the university alongside the denomination 100 years ago, LPU has always been a place for equipping men and women for ministry in The Foursquare Church. While students are free to apply on their own outside of LPU within their Foursquare District, LPU provides the unique opportunity to go through the process with fellow students through enrolling in the Foursquare Culture and Doctrine course (MIN470) once a student is in upper division courses.

This class introduces the students to The Foursquare Church, covering five main components: Heritage, Identity, Doctrine, Polity and The Practical Life of the Minister. Students receive additional support from the professor as their assigned coach, with additional lectures and interview preparation, and are also given the support of in person group preparation in class. At the end of the semester, students are assigned an interview day and time and then can become recommended by the panel to The Foursquare Board. Once the board approves, the student is officially licensed.

We encourage all LPU students, any degree, to consider this option, not just those who plan to go into vocational ministry. The benefits of being licensed include many opportunities that apply to multiple settings of career and ministry. Licensing gives the credentialed right to marry, lead funerals, give special visit care at hospitals and even entrance in certain disaster situations. Benefits include: emotional and spiritual support and commissioning, security through life insurance and retirement, instant network within the Foursquare family, additional financial resources and more. Additional licensing information may be obtained from the Director of the Office of Career and Global Engagement.

INTERNSHIP REQUIREMENT

Research proves that employers desire workers with experiential learning and life skills. The internship courses are designed to provide students with the opportunity for directed experience in their vocational field to further their career preparation. The importance of practical training is highlighted by the 2 or 3-unit internship requirement in all traditional majors.

Although internships are required, applicants still go through a careful and thorough process of evaluation and recommendation. In some cases, specific pre-requisite courses must be completed before taking the internship. A student may choose to participate in a summer or in-semester internship once s/he has successfully applied to upper-division studies. Internships may be completed at a local church, camp, district office, counseling or social work office, business or non-profit organization as applicable to the student's major. Students are limited to 18 units in the semester in which they are enrolled in the internship course. Internships are overseen by the Director of the Office of Career and Global Engagement and faculty from select programs.

STUDENT LIFE

The Office of Student Life (OSL) oversees and manages many of the campus resources available to students in an effort to create a comprehensive university experience. Our mission is to provide students with programs and services that promote student success within the context of a transformative faith, living, and learning community. Student Life's spectrum of care includes: the Associated Student Government, Career and Global Engagement (including Career Services, Ministry Formation, and Global Life), Chapel, Commuter Services, the First Aid & Wellness Center, New Student Orientation, Residence Life, Diversity and Reconciliation, Retention, Student Success, Student Care, Student Conduct, Campus Safety, Facilities, and Athletics. Additionally, the Dean of Students/Vice President of Student Life serves as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator for the University and liaison to Emmaus Road Christian Counseling.

New Student Orientation

New Student Orientation is a program that exists to create a smooth, safe, and fun transition into Life Pacific University. The program seeks to make new students feel at home and allow parents to feel connected and involved with LPU. Welcome Week takes place during the first week that students return to school in the fall and spring. Each event is designed to welcome new and continuing students to the campus by providing opportunities for them to connect and meet new people. New Student Orientation is mandatory for all incoming first-year students at Life Pacific University.

Attire and Grooming

It is not the University's intent to deprive the student of his/her own prerogative as to style of dress. However, it is an objective of LPU to provide a unified representation of this community. As a result, students must exemplify modesty and good taste, and should be well groomed and clean. For questions regarding the implications of the policy please see the Office of Student Life.

Spiritual Life

Central to the LPU experience is a focus upon spiritual growth through personal devotional times, building relationships, and involvement in various worship and service opportunities —including a strong commitment to involvement at a local church.

LPU's administration, faculty, and staff share the conviction that students must place a high priority on the development of a consistent daily walk with Jesus Christ. God's desire is that great emphasis be placed upon nurturing a consistent personal relationship with Him. Group prayer sessions, Bible studies and accountability groups in the residence halls, regular chapel services, and spontaneous calls to prayer and ministry offer further spiritual encouragement. See Spiritual Development Student Learning Outcomes.

Chapel

The chapel program at Life Pacific University exists to create a consistent rhythm of intentional worship opportunities for undergraduate students that encourage and promote the University's values and convictions of holistic formation by means of a diverse, relevant, and challenging curriculum utilizing gifted speakers, creative arts, and Christian practices. Chapels give students an opportunity to receive personal and corporate renewal, so they can give of themselves at their local churches and to their communities. The time also serves as a vehicle for students, staff and faculty to be in community with one another. It is LPU's heart to prepare students as they earnestly seek an intimate relationship with Christ.

Life Pacific University recognizes that chapel is not a replacement for church attendance. It is, however, a place where we as a worshipping community, honor the Lord Jesus Christ. Students should respect others around them as they refrain from the following: talking during chapel, use of either laptop, cellphone, or tablet, leaving early, sleeping, doing homework, et cetera. Failure to comply with these guidelines will result in a loss of chapel credit for that day.

Associated Student Government (ASG)

All undergraduate on-campus students at Life Pacific University are members of the Associated Student Government and represented by the ASG Executive Team and Cabinet. The goal of the ASG Executive Team is to represent and advocate for the undergraduate student body, serve the student body with meaningful programming and events, and lead the student body with a Christ-centered vision. The Executive Team is elected in the spring semester to serve the following academic year. This team of five students serves as a liaison between the students and the University administration.

LPU Semester Retreats

A highlight for student fellowship and spiritual refreshment is the semester retreat. This is a time, led by the Campus Chaplain and Student Leadership, when the University community comes together for worship, community building, and spiritual renewal. These retreats occur at the beginning of each semester to provide vision and bring unity to the student body. LPU semester retreats are mandatory for all full-time students and are offered at no additional cost.

University Traditions

Among the typical year's events are Welcome Week, Spring Social, Worship Nights, the "Aimees," "Airband", Late Night Breakfast, Night Market, Senior Trip day and Fall Fest. There are also scheduled musical performances and student trips to various local and cultural events. Many other large and small-scale social activities occur throughout the year.

CAREER AND GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

The Office of Career and Global Engagement (CGE) promotes student growth in ministry formation and spiritual development, in identifying God's calling on their life and career path, and resources students with local and global opportunities to develop practical skills for success. CGE exists to bridge students from LPU to meaningful employment in the church, the workplace, and the world.

The Office of Career and Global Engagement oversees career development, job placement & internships, Foursquare licensing, local and global short-term trips and outreach, and the Ministry Formation and Spiritual Development program, which includes chapel attendance, spring and fall retreat attendance, community outreach, church involvement and a growth reflection.

Career Development

Life Pacific University offers career development and services for its students, graduates and alumni. The Office of Career and Global Engagement utilizes the career platform Handshake to connect students to available jobs, internships, volunteer and residency opportunities. These opportunities are made available to all LPU students and alumni. The department hosts events and offers resources for students to develop their skills in career planning, including: resume writing, interviewing, life skills development, professional conduct and more.

Global Short-Term Trips + Outreach

Life Pacific University values experiential and cross-cultural learning. We are committed to providing opportunities for our students to participate in off-campus programs, making the globe their classroom.

Program Goals

1. Extend the campus to the globe where students are challenged to develop academic competencies beyond their on-campus experience.
2. Provide opportunities for students to gain skills and experience living and working in a culture different from their own thus becoming a global person.
3. Collaborate with The Foursquare Church, Foursquare Missions International (FMI), Cause Networks, Disaster Relief, Chaplains and Life Pacific University in the creation of global networks for the development of Life Pacific University students and building relationships for long term service.
4. Invest in students and student leaders through training of leadership skills, life skills, and intercultural awareness.

Short-Term, Cross-Cultural Trips

Teams raise their own support and travel times vary from a weekend to three weeks. Not all programs may be offered every academic year. These opportunities expand students' intellectual, professional, and personal development through formal and experiential learning in other cultural contexts. They enhance students' cross-cultural awareness and appreciation in an increasingly complex global environment. CGE partners with Foursquare Missions International missionaries through various work projects and relational ministry. Our teams' focus is to serve, learn and grow, helping enhance their ministry and come away with a greater understanding of the global kingdom of God and our role in it.

On-Campus Engagement

CGE partners with our Multicultural Student Organization (MSO) and our office of Diversity and Reconciliation to engage students in cross-cultural learning and dialog through on-campus events and guest speakers. Every Fall CGE supports student-led global initiatives through Global Vision Week, a 3-5 day event. During this week, short-term trips are announced, students hear from and connect with FMI Missionaries, ASG hosts a multi-lingual worship and prayer Tehillah, and MSO coordinates Salsa Y Salsa, a fun event designed to celebrate the diverse Latino culture on campus. Throughout the year FMI leaders speak in classrooms and Chapels so that students of every major can learn about the movement of the Global church.

MINISTRY FORMATION AND SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT

The University places a strong emphasis upon the student's active participation in local church ministry and volunteer outreach and considers ministry involvement a necessary part of the educational program offered at LPU.

Ministry Formation Student Learning Outcomes

1. Display a value for and commitment to the local church as the missional representative of God, his kingdom, and work in the world.
2. Display a commitment to serve others, locally and globally, as an expression of Christ's compassion towards the world.
3. Apply an emerging understanding of ministry within everyday contexts in the church, the workplace and the world.
4. Identify how to effectively minister to diverse people with sensitivity to cultures and contexts.
5. Minister out of a healthy spiritual life that is marked by coachability and humility while living in community.

Spiritual Development Student Learning Outcomes

1. Express a growing love for God with all their being.
2. Consistently engage in the spiritual practices as pathways to seeking to know God.
3. Demonstrate a commitment to be like Christ in their thinking and actions evidenced by personal transformation, displaying the fruit of the Spirit, and obedience to God's will.
4. Articulate a sense of God's purpose for their life with dependence upon the empowerment of the Spirit.

Semester Requirements

Student requirements for ministry formation include: 1) attending and serving in a local church, 2) attending LPU weekly chapel services, 3) attending the LPU semester retreat, 4) completing 8-10 community service hours, and 5) turning in a growth reflection.

The Office of Career and Global Engagement defines "church" as a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit religious organization or recognized and verified by a denomination as a church plant, house church, simple church, etc. Students are required to attend a church that fits this description in order to receive credit for the MIN 095 Ministry Formation Church Involvement requirement.

Student participation in community service hours will only be eligible for credit if the event is:

1. Unpaid,

2. Does not directly benefit a family member.
3. Does not directly benefit Life Pacific University.
4. Meets tangible needs in the community.

Failure Policy

Ministry Formation & Spiritual Development is a Pass/Fail program. It will be listed on the students' transcript as a P or F grade, however, it will not affect a students' GPA. It is the student's responsibility to complete and submit all materials by their assigned due date. Students must pass at least three of the five requirements in order to gain a passing grade. Students' failing grades for Ministry Formation carry from semester to semester, resulting in more severe statuses (listed below).

Status 1: ALERT

Students given policy, reminded of consequences if failed again

Status 2: WARNING

Students given policy, reminded of consequences if failed again

May make student ineligible for Student Leadership position, determined by Director of Calling and Vocation If employed on-campus, supervisors will be informed

Status 3: PROBATION

Registrar and Ministry Formation "Hold" is applied.

Student ineligible for Student Leadership Positions

Required meeting with VPAA and Director of Calling and Vocation

May impact on-campus employment eligibility, at the discretion of the Ministry Formation Director and employment supervisor

Status 4: DISMISSAL

Dismissal from the University for one semester and must petition with the Ministry Formation Committee to re-enter. A hold is placed on their record.

Note: Students enrolled in the Associate of Arts degree can be dismissed from the university after failing ministry formation three times.

Renewal Policy

Once a student passes a semester, they are moved back one status level each time they receive a passing grade.

Graduation Requirement

Students who fail Ministry Formation in their last semester will be ineligible to graduate regardless of Ministry Formation status and will be required to satisfactorily complete a ministry formation graduate assignment as determined by the department before their degree will be posted.

RESIDENCE LIFE

The Office of Residence Life strives to provide a rich community that partners with residents in their academic success, personal development, social connection, global awareness, and spiritual growth.

Departmental Goals:

1. Academic Success
As students participate in the residence halls, they will be challenged and supported in becoming knowledgeable and engaged learners and leaders both in and outside the classroom. Our program will serve as a catalyst in teaching our students healthy academic habits.
2. Personal Development
As students participate in the residence halls, they will be challenged and supported in discovering and valuing their unique design and how they can use their gifts to benefit God's Kingdom. Students will also be challenged to live a life of healthy boundaries and discipline.
3. Social Connection
As students participate in the residence halls, they will be challenged and supported in developing intentional and authentic relationships. They will learn what it means to contribute and be a part of a rich community.

4. Global Awareness

As students participate in the residence halls, they will be challenged and supported in increasing their awareness of global and societal concerns and learn how to actively respond in their communities.

5. Spiritual Growth

As students participate in the residence halls, they will be challenged and supported in striving to continue to develop their spiritual identities and grow in spiritual disciplines.

The campus has furnished residence halls, which provide comfortable accommodations. Resident students enjoy a "home away from home" atmosphere and full meal service in the Café.

All single students under the age of 23 who are enrolled in 8 on-campus units or more are required to live on-campus. Appeals to live off campus, including those from single students living with parents or guardians, must be filed with the Office of Residence Life. There are no automatic exemptions. All appeals to the housing exemption policy will go through the Housing Exemption Committee. The residence halls are under the direct supervision of the Director of Residence Life who works with Resident Directors and Resident Assistants to care for, advise, and provide oversight in keeping a sense of community.

A residence hall application, with full information concerning fees and deposits, will be sent to all applicants who are eligible to live in residence housing. If desired, a resident may choose to pay in monthly installments.

TRADITIONAL UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES | LPU-VIRGINIA CAMPUS

Life Pacific University operates an extension site in Christiansburg, VA offering its Associate of Arts Degree in General Studies and Bachelor of Arts in Ministry as approved by LPU's Administrative Council and Board of Trustees, LPU's accreditors - WSCUC and ABHE - and the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV). Life Pacific University ensures any credit earned for coursework completed at its Virginia location is transferable to programs at the home campus in California as well as its online programs.

The LPU-Virginia complex includes a physical plant consisting of classrooms, a library, housing facilities with accommodations for nearly 130 people, a full gymnasium, workout area, several student lounges, a café/dining hall, a campus post office, and administration offices. It is located at CrossPointe, 900 Life Dr., Christiansburg, Virginia 24073-7160, Phone: (540) 394-7200; Fax: (540) 382-0592.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

For application requirements and process for the Virginia undergraduate program, please see page 15.

COSTS AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

University tuition and related costs should be considered well in advance of registration. All educational expenses will be the student's responsibility. A schedule of costs is available prior to each year. These will be distributed to students and parents so that proper preparation may be made for the upcoming year. In addition to the fee schedule that follows, students should expect to pay between $250 and $800 for books per semester. Book lists and associated costs are located on the student's schedule accessible via the LPU Portal. Tuition may increase in subsequent years, and students will be notified of any tuition rate changes.

Virginia Undergraduate Program Tuition & Fees

Fees are subject to change and are refundable only through the first full week of classes.

- Block Tuition (12 to 18 units per semester)$7944.00
- Tuition (units under 12 or over 18)$662.00
- Audit Fee (per unit)$50.00
- Housing & Meals per semester$4,500.00
- Single Occupancy Fee per semester$700.00
- Directed Study Fee (per unit, in addition to tuition)$150.00
- Incomplete Contract Fee (per course)$150.00
- Graduation Fee (participating in Commencement)$175.00
- Graduation Fee (in absentia)$75.00
- Lab Fee (varies by class)$30-80
- Orientation Fee (incoming students only)$75.00
- Payment Plan Fee (when paying in installments)$50.00
- Credit for Prior Learning Fee (per unit)$75.00
- Student Services fee (per semester, 7 units or more or living on campus)$125.00
- Transcript Fee$7.50

Required Prepayments

- Campus housing security deposit$200.00
- Enrollment Deposit$100.00

Tuition Payment Plans

Students can either pay-in-full or choose the installment payment plan and make four equal payments over the course of the semester. A payment plan fee of $50 will be assessed for students choosing this second option. For both new and continuing students, the first payment is due August 1st for the fall term and January 2nd for the spring term.

Unpaid Accounts

A student may not register for courses, receive a diploma, or participate in graduation ceremonies until all financial obligations have been satisfied in accordance with the University's financial policies. Unpaid accounts may be submitted to an outside collection agency.

REFUNDS

Housing and Meals

The Housing security deposit is due with the Housing Application. This deposit is refundable in full for new students who have chosen not to, or are unable to, live in the residence hall, and if written notification is given to Student Accounts by August 1 for the fall semester or December 1 for the spring semester. Once a student has moved into the residence hall, the security deposit is only refunded if established check-out procedures have been followed at the time of final check out. Any room damages and fines attributed to the student must be paid by the student in order to keep the security deposit at $200 until they no longer live in campus housing. When a student completes a final check out any room damages and fines attributed to the student will be deducted from this deposit.

Students who withdraw during the semester will not receive a refund for Housing and Meals.

Enrollment Deposit

The $100 Enrollment deposit required for those applicants who complete the application process prior to the application deadline is refundable until August 1 for the fall semester or December 1 for the spring semester. If an applicant chooses not to attend, he or she must submit a written request for a refund of their enrollment deposit to the Student Accounts Office by August 1 for the fall semester and December 1 for the spring semester. For all applicants applying after the deadline, the Enrollment Deposit is due immediately and is not refundable except in the case where the applicant is denied admission to the University.

Tuition Refunds

If a student decides to withdraw from a course, they must first notify the Registrar's and Financial Aid offices. Whether or not a refund is given, and the amount, will be determined by the e-mail notification date, or postmark for standard mail. If a student does not officially cancel a course, they will receive a grade of "FN" (failure, non-attendance)

When withdrawing from or dropping a course, regardless of the reason, the possible effect on financial aid should be considered. For students receiving any form of aid, please contact the Financial Aid Office before dropping a course(s).

Fall and Spring Full Semester Course Add / Drop Deadline

The last day to add or drop a course without tuition penalty or withdrawal grade is the Wednesday of the second week of classes. A student may withdraw from courses after the add/drop deadline but will incur tuition penalties as described below. See the Academic Calendar for specific dates.

Withdrawal Date	Tuition Penalty	Grade
Before the Add/Drop Deadline	No Tuition Penalty	removed from transcript
Through the third week of class	20% tuition penalty	W
Through the fifth week of class	40% tuition penalty	W
Through the seventh week of class	60% tuition penalty	W
After the seventh week of class	100% tuition penalty	W
Last day for withdrawal with "W" Grade	Friday of Week 11	W

Lab fees, applied fees, and audit units are nonrefundable after the last day to add classes. The University reserves the right to override the refund policy when extenuating circumstances exist.

Refund of Credit Balances

Refunds occur when payments applied to a student's account, including financial aid, exceed charges. When a student's account has a credit balance a refund check is automatically processed. Refund checks are normally mailed within 14 days from the date the credit balance first appeared on the student's account.

Bachelor of Arts

- Ministry - (121 units, see page 62).

New Student Academic Advising & Registration

New incoming students receive registration information prior to the start of each semester. During a new student's first registration, the Registrar's Office staff work with and advise each new student via phone and/or email. New transfer students are provided with transcript evaluations. Because there is a set curriculum for the AA degree and only these courses are offered at the Virginia campus, full-time students will be provided with a suggested schedule based on the specific courses offered in that term for their degree, taking into consideration any transfer work.

Continuing Student Advising & Registration

Advising for continuing students is available by appointment to all students through the Registrar's office. The Registrar's Office reviews each student's degree audit identifying courses remaining to complete the student's degree. Because there is a set curriculum for the AA degree and only these courses are offered at the Virginia campus, full-time students will be provided with a suggested schedule based on the specific courses offered in that term for their degree, taking into consideration any transfer work.

Registration is completed by the Registrar's office based on the schedule offered that term. Students with an outstanding balance may be restricted from registering until financial arrangements have been made with the Student Account Office. (See Financial Information page 47, for costs and payment plans.)

Continuing or reentering students who are unable to finalize their registration on these dates may complete late registration no later than the deadline to add regular classes. Late registrants run the risk of full class rosters and may need to adjust their class schedule accordingly. Class attendance is not permitted until registration is complete, which includes financial payment. Professors may begin recording attendance the first day of class and absences may impact grades.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENT & COURSE WITHDRAWALS

Students are expected to attend classes regularly. Consistent attendance and punctuality are assets for academic success.

Faculty members are authorized to develop and implement attendance policies that affect student grades and to determine if tardiness or absences are excused or unexcused. Faculty members will inform students of attendance policies, if applicable, for specific courses in the Course Outline. It is incumbent upon the student to read and follow the attendance policy established by the faculty.

Failure due to Non-Attendance

In addition to individual faculty attendance policies, the following campus-wide policy applies: Faculty should withdraw any student from class who is no longer progressing in the class due to prolonged absence (three or more consecutive weeks or seven consecutive instructional days) or who has, at any time after the midpoint of the course, missed 50% of the scheduled class time to that point. Absences may, depending on the faculty, be determined by failure to submit assignments, incomplete in-class activities, or, in an online course, failure to submit online discussion posts for the purposes of establishing the last date of attendance for financial aid purposes. The student will receive an FN (failure, non-attendance) grade. The Registrar's Office will send notification to students who have been withdrawn from class in this manner. The submission of an FN grade by a professor supersedes a student's ability to withdraw during the drop period with a W (withdraw) grade.

Course Withdrawals

A student may withdraw from classes without grade penalty at any time after the Add/Drop Period through the 11th week of the semester. For tuition and grade penalties, see page 48. The student must submit a Class Withdrawal form to the Registrar's Office. The student will receive a W (withdrawal) grade in that course. A student who never attends or stops attending a course for which he or she is officially registered without following the accepted procedures will receive an F or FN grade in that course.

FOURSQUARE MINISTERIAL LICENSE

Life Pacific University graduates are eligible to apply for a ministerial license with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. Since the founding of the university over 90 years ago, it has been a center for equipping men and women for ministry in the Foursquare Church.

Not all graduates of LPU enter Foursquare ministry. Many serve in other denominations, fellowships, para-church ministries, businesses, and other organizations around the world. However, to the qualified LPU graduate, there is an open door of ministry internationally in the Foursquare family. Students who earn an A.A. degree are eligible to apply for a Foursquare Ministerial License if they complete the Foursquare Heritage, Doctrine, and Polity course.

ONLINE UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

Life Pacific University's online undergraduate (OUG) program provides opportunities for students to complete an Associate of Arts or Bachelor of Arts degree without attending classes on-campus. Classes are held on a semester basis with students accessing their classes online throughout the week using LPU's Moodle course management system.

Bachelor of Arts

- Ministry & Leadership - (120 units, see page 84)
- Organizational Management - (120 units, see page 71)

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

Upon acceptance into the program students must participate in an online orientation to the program and to the university. Students will be placed into an online success workshop and an online orientation in Moodle containing helpful information and tools, with brief assignments and quizzes. The orientation will acquaint the student with major aspects of the program, policies, and procedures.

ACADEMIC ADVISING & REGISTRATION

Online undergraduate students work with the Registrar's Office for Online Programs for individual academic advising. The Registrar and online student support staff work with the student throughout their program to ensure the student completes all curriculum requirements necessary to earn their degree.

New incoming students receive registration information prior to the start of each semester. During a new student's first registration, the Registrar's Office staff work with and advise each new student via phone and/or email. New students are provided with transcript evaluations, if applicable, as well as a suggested course layout.

Advising for continuing students is available by appointment to all students through the Registrar's office. The Registrar's Office reviews each student's degree audit identifying courses remaining to complete the student's degree and makes course recommendations based on the suggested course completion layout.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENT & COURSE WITHDRAWALS

Due to the concentrated scheduling and the emphasis upon participatory learning, students need to be in attendance every week. Failure to access the online course or participate in online discussions for one week is considered an absence in the online format. Online students must make their first dialogue post no later than Wednesday of the first week in order to be considered present in the class. Students who do not make a timely first post, and have not contacted their instructor, are subject to academic withdrawal from the class.

Failure due to Non-Attendance

Attendance in online courses is determined by participation in the weekly online discussion forums, not by merely accessing the course. Failure to post in the online discussion forums during the first week may result in the student being dropped from the course. Students who are inactive for two consecutive weeks or 50% of the weeks in any given course will receive an "FN" grade (failure, non-attendance) in the form of a Faculty Initiated Withdrawal issued by the professor and will be required to retake the course. Financial aid may be affected if this occurs. In extreme circumstances exceptions may be granted with the consent of the professor and the Registrar's office if needed. The Registrar's Office will send notification to students who have been withdrawn from class in this manner. The submission of an FN grade by a professor supersedes a student's ability to withdraw during the drop period with a W (withdraw) grade and forfeit the tuition for that course.

Course Withdrawals

Students who encounter circumstances that necessitate withdrawal from a course must submit written notice to the Registrar's Office. For withdrawal tuition and grade penalties, see page 51. Students who withdraw prior to the last day to withdraw deadline, will receive a W (withdrawal) grade in that course. A student who never attends or stops attending a course for which he or she is officially registered without following the accepted procedures will receive an F or FN grade in that course.

MINISTRY FORMATION

Life Pacific University places a strong emphasis upon the student's active participation in local church ministry under the supervision of a pastor / mentor and considers this a necessary part of the total educational program offered. The Ministry Formation aspect of the program is based upon three major components:

1. A strong commitment by each student to active service in a local church body.
2. The development of character qualities necessary for ministry leadership.
3. The continuing improvement in the student's understanding and use of ministry skills, gifts, and abilities.

Ministry Formation requirements are necessary throughout the program. Students are expected to be regularly attending and involved in a local church. Students must be involved in ministry activities such as leading a service, an outreach team, a youth group or other small group, etc. Students who, for whatever reason, are not able to participate in local church ministry should discuss with the Program Director viable options for fulfilling this requirement.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

Students can begin online programs in either the fall or spring semester. Each semester is divided into two 8-week sessions with two classes per session and one 16-week course that stretches across the entire semester. In addition to weekly reading and assignments, students will participate in discussion boards with professors and peers. Students who are enrolled in a full-time course load and should expect to spend an average of 30 hours each week.

Students will access their classes multiple times a week. Meaningful interaction between the instructor and the students, and among students, is an essential element of the classes. The professor interacts with students through email, faculty-led discussions, feedback on student work, and occasional telephone contact. Students interact with one another through email, threaded discussions, and group projects. There are no residency requirements for students in the online program.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Students will be required to have access to a computer with a reliable Internet connection (preferably high speed) and common computer home/office software for completing written assignments. The program assumes basic technological skills including how to (1) create, attach, and send a document electronically (2) use a web browser including viewing video files, (3) download and open various files such as .pdf, MS Word, PowerPoint, and (3) send and receive email.

GRADUATE STUDIES

Graduate Studies at Life Pacific University are designed to provide field-based ministers as well as other leaders and professionals with the necessary skills to increase their effectiveness in their current and prospective roles in Christian ministry, leadership, business, and the caring professions. The programs take one to three years to complete and are designed for those who have a bachelor's degree and desire to pursue further specialized education and develop additional skills. Ideal students are those who have demonstrated a significant commitment to serve others whether in vocational ministry or other professional settings.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

For application requirements and process for the graduate programs, please see page 18.

COSTS AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION

University tuition and related costs should be considered well in advance of registration. All educational expenses will be the student's responsibility. A schedule of costs is available prior to each year. These will be distributed to students so that proper preparation may be made for the upcoming year. In addition to the fee schedule that follows, students should expect to pay between $100 and $200 for books per course. Book lists and associated costs are located on the student's schedule accessible via the LPU Portal. Tuition may increase in subsequent years, and students will be notified of any tuition rate changes.

Graduate Program Tuition & Fees

Fees are subject to change and are refundable only through the first full week of classes.

• MASL/MLSP/MATS/MDIV Tuition (per unit)	$575.00
• MAC Tuition (per unit)	$745.00
• MBA Tuition (per unit)	$640.00
• Residency Fee (per residency)	$275.00
• Graduation Fee (participating in Commencement)	$200.00-$300
• Student Services/Tech Fee (per semester).....	$175.00
• Graduation Fee (in absentia)	$75.00
• Transcript Fee	$7.50

Tuition Payment Plan

Tuition for each class is due one week prior to the start of the class. Students applying for financial aid must complete their documentation and be fully admitted into the Graduate program prior to the start of the module if they wish their financial aid to cover their payments.

Unpaid Accounts

A student may not register for courses, receive a diploma, or participate in graduation ceremonies until all financial obligations have been satisfied in accordance with the University's financial policies. Unpaid accounts may be submitted to an outside collection agency.

REFUNDS

Tuition Refunds

The last day to add or drop a course without tuition penalty or withdrawal grade is the Sunday of the first week of the class. A student may withdraw from courses after the add/drop deadline but will incur tuition penalties as described below. If a student decides to withdraw from a course, they must first notify the Registrar's and Financial Aid offices. Whether or not a refund is given, and the amount, will be determined by the e-mail notification date, or postmark for standard mail. If a student does not officially cancel a course, they will receive a grade of "FN" (failure, non-attendance)

When withdrawing from or dropping a course, regardless of the reason, the possible effect on financial aid should be considered. For students receiving any form of aid, please contact the Financial Aid Office before dropping a course(s).

Institutional Financial Penalties for Withdrawal & Classes Dropped:

Graduate 8-week Classes

Withdrawal Date	Tuition Penalty	Grade
Before the Add/Drop Deadline	0%	removed from transcript
Through the 2 nd week of class	25%	W
Through the 4 th week of class	50%	W
AFTER the 4 th week of class	100%	FN

Graduate 5- week Classes

Withdrawal Date	Tuition Penalty	Grade
Before the Add/Drop Deadline	0%	removed from transcript
Through the 2 nd week of class	25%	W
Through the 3 rd week of class	50%	W
AFTER the 3 rd week of class	100%	FN

Refund of Credit Balances

Refunds occur when payments applied to a student's account, including financial aid, exceed charges. When a student's account has a credit balance a refund check is automatically processed. Refund checks are normally mailed within 14 days from the date the credit balance first appeared on the student's account.

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

For financial aid information for the online graduate program, please see page 32.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

General university academic information can be found on page 20 of the catalog.

GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAMS OFFERED

Programs

- Business Administration (MBA) – (30 units, see page 73)
- Counseling (MAC) – (60 units, see page 75)
- Divinity (MDIV) – (72 units, see page 94)
- Leadership, Spanish Language (MLSP) – (36 units, see page 88)
- Strategic Leadership, with an emphasis in Ministry (MASL) – (36 units, see page 90)
- Theological Studies (MATS) – (48 units, see page 92)

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENT AND COURSE WITHDRAWALS

Due to the concentrated scheduling and the emphasis upon participatory learning, students need to be in attendance every week. Failure to access the online course and participate in online discussions for one week is considered an absence. Students must make their first dialogue post no later than Wednesday of the first week in order to be considered present in the class. Students who do not make a timely first post, and have not contacted their instructor, are subject to academic withdrawal from the class.

Failure due to Non-Attendance

Attendance in online courses is determined by participation in the weekly online discussion forums, not by merely accessing the course. Students who are inactive for two consecutive weeks or 50% of the weeks in any given course will receive an "FN" grade (failure, non-attendance) in the form of a Faculty Initiated Withdrawal issued by the professor and will be required to retake the course. Financial aid may be affected if this occurs. In extreme circumstances, exceptions may be granted with the consent of the professor and the Program Director. Students should contact the Director and instructor regarding absences. The Registrar's Office will send notification to students who have been withdrawn from class in this manner. The submission of an FN grade by a professor supersedes a student's ability to withdraw during the drop period with a W (withdraw) grade.

Withdrawing from a Course

Because of the sequenced structure of the graduate program, students are strongly encouraged to maintain the pace of their cohort. Students who encounter circumstances that necessitate withdrawal from a course must submit written notice to the Registrar's Office. For withdrawal tuition and grade penalties, see page 55.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

Students in graduate programs, other than the MBA, complete their program with a cohort group, enrolling in sequenced courses one at a time. In order to meet adult learners' need for convenience and flexibility, the programs consist of eight-week online courses and two one-week in person residencies followed by four weeks of online work.

Though at a distance, the student will be able to maintain vital peer relationships begun during residency and develop ongoing collaboration and mutual student support. The online courses will incorporate text, audio, and video content delivery as well as required interaction through discussion boards. Meaningful interaction between the instructor and the students, and among students, is an essential element of online classes. The professor interacts with students through email, faculty-led discussions, and feedback on student work. Students interact with one another through email, threaded discussions, and group projects.

ADVISING & REGISTRATION

Once a student enrolls in the Graduate Program, they are automatically registered for the entirety of the program. No additional registration procedure is required. Students will have access in Moodle to each class by noon of the first day of the new class. Please refer to your cohort schedule to review the date each course starts. It is essential that any student who decides to withdraw from a class contact the Registrar as soon as possible in order to avoid financial or academic penalties.

Students who desire academic advising or need assistance to address specific concerns can contact the Registrar or Program Director.

Change of Cohort

Students who are unable to maintain their cohort's schedule may be allowed to miss up to three courses while remaining with their original cohort, or students can resume their program with a subsequent cohort. The missed courses must be completed at a later date. Students who are thinking about stepping out of the cohort for one course or more should contact the Registrar and Financial Aid department to make sure they understand the academic and financial implications of the decision.

Repeating a Course

Students who withdraw from, fail, or are dropped from a course in the program will have to make up the course when it is offered to another cohort.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Students will be required to have access to a computer with a reliable Internet connection (preferably high speed) and common computer home/office software for completing written assignments. The program assumes basic technological skills including how to (1) create, attach, and send a document electronically (2) use a web browser including viewing video files, (3) download and open various files such as .pdf, MS Word, PowerPoint, and (3) send and receive email. The first residency will include an Orientation that will provide students with training in any areas in which they are deficient.

COMMUNITY LIFE AGREEMENT

Life Pacific University has chosen to set itself apart for the purpose of educating and equipping Christian servant leaders. It is crucial, therefore, that student' attitudes and behaviors reflect the character of Jesus Christ at all times. Students, by their voluntary membership in this Christian community, assume responsibility to:

1. abide by all the regulations of the University, and
2. use personal discretion involving any activities which may be morally or spiritually destructive or reflect poorly on the campus community.

In particular, Life expects students to refrain from:

- Being under the influence of intoxicants,
- Using or possessing illegal drugs, and
- Inappropriate sexual behavior, including any conduct of sexual harassment.

All students represent Christ and Life Pacific University wherever they are and are expected to exhibit a distinctive Christian lifestyle in all their activities, both on and off campus. The Community Life Agreement is in place for the express purpose of moving students towards Christian maturity and service and creating an environment that is conducive to academic learning and personal growth and development.

WITHDRAWING AND RE-ADMITTANCE TO THE PROGRAM

Students who find it necessary to withdraw from the Graduate Program must submit notification in writing to the Registrar's Office and complete an exit interview.

Students may rejoin the program in accordance with all other policies in this catalog. The student should notify the Registrar for Adult and Graduate Studies as soon as possible of their intention to rejoin, no later than two weeks prior to start of their next class. Students may be required to submit a Re-entrant Application if absent from the program for over one year. It is the student's responsibility that all tuition is paid, any financial aid is approved, and they have books and materials in sufficient time for the upcoming classes. Students are also responsible for coordinating with the Registrar's office to take any classes they miss.

UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Life Pacific University is structured into two academic divisions: a School of Arts & Sciences and a School of Theology & Ministry. Information regarding these colleges and the programs in them are provided in this section. Programs are offered in traditional and online modes of learning.

SCHOOL OF ARTS & SCIENCES

The School of Arts & Sciences encompasses undergraduate and graduate programs that, while they have church applications, are directed toward those who see the marketplace, boardroom, and counseling office as a mission field. All traditional undergraduate students pursuing a bachelors degree complete, in addition to their major, a core curriculum which includes a 30-unit Biblical Studies minor along with ministry formation (service learning) requirements. All online programs incorporate sound biblical and theological perspectives as part of the curriculum and student outcomes.

UNDERGRADUATE CORE CURRICULUM COMPONENTS

In addition to extensive coursework in a chosen field of study (major) all students in undergraduate programs across both colleges complete a core curriculum consisting of Biblical Studies, ministry, and general education requirements.

CORE CURRICULUM GOALS

Christian leaders must have an adequate understanding of the Bible, theology, people, and environment around them. The core curriculum is applicable to all traditional undergraduate majors and encourages the development of intellectual, spiritual, social, and cultural maturity expected of university graduates.

Students who complete the core curriculum requirements should be able to:

1. Apply critical and creative thinking skills to provide reasoned analysis of competing ideas as well as solutions to difficult problems.
2. Analyze quantitative data to address questions, support arguments and evaluate conclusions.
3. Access and evaluate information in conducting research and conveying results of that research ethically to others.
4. Compose multi-media presentations and written communications, including those specific to their discipline.
5. Communicate orally in various settings, including those specific to their discipline.
6. Express an appreciation for the diversity of people and their cultures, in order to honor God's creativity and his creation.
7. Apply strategies necessary for continuous development of knowledge and skills, integrating a Christian worldview within various physical, social, cultural, and technological environments and communities.
8. Demonstrate an appropriate understanding of biblical content, inductive Bible study, and theological synthesis for a Christian leader.
9. Apply a Spirit-filled, biblical understanding of ministry to serve people as followers of Christ in the Church, home, workplace, and the world.

GENERAL EDUCATION

General education courses equip students to consider fundamental concepts in the humanities and sciences thoughtfully, guided by a Judeo-Christian and specifically Pentecostal world view. They are designed to help students acquire the skills necessary to achieve academic success and to successfully engage the increasingly complex global culture. These courses are developed through a faith that is grounded in the Scriptures and embraces Christ's transforming power. All students take courses in the humanities, communication, social and behavioral sciences, math and natural sciences. Students will have opportunities in their coursework to acquire foundational skills vital to their vocational direction and service in the church.

The General Education Goals are numbers 1-7 listed above in the core curriculum goals.

Philosophy of General Education

LPU's GE curriculum supports students as they integrate faith and learning. The students develop a foundation of skills in written and oral communication, critical thinking, information literacy, and quantitative reasoning by exploring a broad knowledge of science, social science, and the humanities. This foundation prepares students to fulfill LPU's mission by serving God in the church, the workplace, and the world.

Undergraduate General Education Requirements

All traditional Bachelor degree programs require students to complete 42 units in each of the following general education categories. See program curriculum for specific course requirements.

Communication.....	6	Math & Science	6
Humanities	12	Social & Behavioral Sciences.....	12
Integrative Studies.....	6

All online Bachelor degree programs require students to complete 39 units in each of the following general education categories. See program curriculum for specific course requirements.

Communication.....	9	Math & Science.....	6
Humanities & Social Behavioral Sciences	24

6 units must be in Humanities and 6 units in SBS

BIBLICAL STUDIES MINOR

All traditional Bachelor degree programs have a Biblical Studies Minor. Biblical studies are fundamental to our curriculum and are required in every program. Even those classes not identified as "Bible" are based on the Word of God and frequently incorporate strong research in Scripture for their successful completion. The University is committed to the development of ministers who "rightly divide the word of truth". This is reflected in the requirement for all programs to include biblical studies and ministry courses. The Biblical Studies Goals are numbers 8-9 listed above in the core curriculum goals.

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS GENERAL STUDIES | TRADITIONAL & ONLINE UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

This program aims at providing Christian leaders with a foundational understanding of the world in which they live and serve. The general education curriculum encourages the development of intellectual, spiritual, social, and cultural maturity expected of university graduates. The program is comprised of the lower division curriculum for LPU's traditional undergraduate degrees. The Life Pacific University Board of Trustees has approved offering the Associate of Arts in General Studies at the LPU-Virginia location in Christiansburg, Virginia in addition to the San Dimas campus and online.

Program Goals

The General Education goals serve as the goals for this program and are expected to be met at an Associates level.

1. Apply critical and creative thinking skills to provide reasoned analysis of competing ideas as well as solutions to difficult problems.
2. Analyze quantitative data to address questions, support arguments and evaluate conclusions.
3. Access and evaluate information in conducting research and conveying results of that research ethically to others.
4. Compose multi-media presentations and written communications, including those specific to their discipline.
5. Communicate orally in various settings, including those specific to their discipline.
6. Express an appreciation for the diversity of people and their cultures, in order to honor God's creativity and his creation.

BACHELOR OF INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES | TRADITIONAL UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM

The BA in Interdisciplinary Studies prepares students for a multidisciplinary pathway for their careers and future educational goals. Through this program students will craft an individualized course of study from two different academic disciplines, plus a broader selection of elective units that can be used for their own unique educational journey. This is a perfect degree for those who have accumulated a significant number of transfer units or whose academic, vocational, or personal goals are best met by taking courses from multiple disciplines across the university.

Program Goals and Outcomes

Upon completion of the Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies, students will be able to:

- 1.0 summarize the theories, methods, and critical perspectives of their chosen disciplinary emphases.
- 2.0 synthesize concepts and practices from different disciplines.
- 3.0 develop innovative approaches and solutions to address issues and challenges in their vocational field to serve an increasingly diverse society.
- 4.0 analyze disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives and practices from a biblical worldview.

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION | ONLINE GRADUATE PROGRAM

The master's degree in business administration enhances a broad range of marketable skills that can give business leaders an edge in the marketplace. Students engage in cross-discipline work through select courses, blending management strategy and analysis, leading to a general management perspective across the functional areas of business. Students take core classes covering accounting, economics, finance, management, marketing, information systems, and strategic planning. Graduates will come away with the necessary skills required to develop leaders, manage operations, and grow organizations. The content is filtered through an ethical decision-making and critical thinking grid within the context of a Christ-Centered worldview and Spirit-empowered business leadership.

Program Goals and Outcomes

Upon the completion of a Master of Business Administration graduates should be able to:

1.0 Strategic and Innovative Thinking, and Analysis

Apply the skills learned to develop fully reasoned arguments and solutions for such contemporary issues as the need for innovation, integrity, leading and managing change, globalization, and technology management.

2.0 Social, Legal, and Ethical Responsibilities of Organizations and Society

Analyze the impact of an enterprise on its various stakeholders using deontological and consequential lenses with an awareness of the current U.S. legal and global regulatory business environment.

3.0 Effective Oral, Written, and Presentation Communication Skills

Construct a logical, relevant, and professional quantitative assessment of business information in an effective manner.

4.0 Team Participation and Leadership

Apply theories of effective leadership, team composition, process, and motivation (including inclusivity and diversity) to effectively manage work teams.

5.0 Faith Integration

Formulate a process of integrating business and Christ-Centered Mission by seeking opportunities to utilize market success in the advancement of God's Kingdom here on the earth.

MASTER OF ARTS COUNSELING | ONLINE GRADUATE PROGRAM

The Master of Arts in Counseling (MAC) prepares students for a career in the mental health professions with a firm foundation of psychological theory, research, and spiritual formation as practitioners. This program is designed to expand student knowledge and expertise in the field of counseling services while developing Christian counseling professionals for a career dedicated to improving the lives of others. Students are prepared for the challenges of the mental health profession by applying current psychological theory integrated with solid biblical principles in spirit-filled practice throughout the curriculum. Built on a cohort model, the program facilitates long-term relationships, supportive growth, and guided professional development. Students will acquire the knowledge and skill to assess, diagnose, and treat patients with mental health or other emotional, social and/or behavioral needs.

This degree will also prepare students who desire a state license as professional clinical counselors. Students pursuing licensing will need to research and follow the requirements for their state and academic requirements established by the National Board for Certified Counselors for the National Certified Counselor (NCC).

Program Goals and Outcomes

Upon the completion of a Master of Arts in Counseling graduates should be able to:

1.0 Assessment & Diagnosis utilize effective skills in evidence-based assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of mental disorders and behavioral needs across the lifespan.

2.0 Law & Ethics

implement legal and ethical decision-making processes in the practice of psychotherapy within a clinical and biblical worldview.

3.0 Theory & Practice

apply theoretical concepts to therapeutic issues in relation to individuals, couples, and families.

4.0 Diversity & Culture examine the complexity of cross-cultural issues and the interventions that address these challenges.

5.0 Formation & Integration formulate a process of integrating psychology and Christianity and connecting each aspect of the human person with God's grace, redemption, and purpose.

MA COUNSELING | 60 UNITS

The 60-unit curriculum of the M.A. in Counseling consists of twenty courses in a cohort model which build upon each other to achieve the program goals. (Some students may be required to complete an additional one-unit practicum to fulfill pre-degree licensing requirements). The MAC is designed for adult and recent college-graduate learners who are pursuing graduate education to develop additional skills in relation to their current and prospective roles in providing counseling services and teaching in higher education.

MASTER OF ARTS THEOLOGICAL STUDIES | ONLINE GRADUATE PROGRAM

The MATS is designed for adult and recent college-graduate learners who are pursuing higher education to develop additional skills in relation to their current (and prospective) roles in Christian ministry (particularly teaching ministry) and Christian higher education. Those in teaching ministry (whether in the Church, church institutes, or a higher education institution) should possess certain sets of skills, knowledge, and values. Student learning outcomes for this program have been designed with these ideas in mind. The curriculum is calculated to provide learning activities reflecting practice in their ministry and teaching environments. As such, program design favors application-based learning, with assignments that can be immediately applied to students' ministry and educational settings.

Program Goals and Outcomes

Upon the completion of a Master of Arts in Theological Studies graduates should be able to:

1.0 Integration/Critical Thinking

Critically integrate knowledge and skills from various fields including biblical studies, Christian history, theology, and education.

2.0 Exploring Theological Ideas/Reflecting Theologically, Ethically, and Systematically

Develop theological conclusions using the Wesleyan quadrilateral, engaging the essential elements of Pentecostal theology, and placing theological ideas within their historical development.

3.0 Performing and Reporting Theological Research

Produce graduate-level theological research by utilizing critical research and information literacy skills.

4.0 Interpreting the Biblical Text

Produce and evaluate interpretations of Christian Scripture using the inductive method in conversation with literary and socio-cultural approaches.

5.0 Spiritual Formation

Conduct themselves with Christian maturity, demonstrating submission to and empowerment by the Holy Spirit through love for God and others.

6.0 Teaching

Construct teaching plans and curriculum for communicating biblical and theological truth in various settings.

MASTER OF DIVINITY | ONLINE GRADUATE PROGRAM

Built upon the foundation of the Master of Arts in Theological Studies degree, the Master of Divinity is the premiere professional degree for pastoral ministry, chaplaincy, and para-church leadership. It is a comprehensive program of study that prepares students for Spirit-empowered ministry in a rapidly changing world. This degree offers the acquisition of knowledge and skills in the areas of biblical studies, theology, pastoral care, and practical ministry.

Program Goals and Outcomes

The Master of Divinity is designed to increase a ministry leader's level of competence in: 1) communicating Scripture, 2) congregational leadership, 3) discipling people, and 4) caring for individual souls and communities amid the growing complexity of a spiritually-starved society. Working from a solid core of biblical studies and theology, the MDiv curriculum is weighted toward the effective integration of practical ministry skills, intercultural awareness, and spiritual formation. It enhances the application-based learning design of the Master of Arts in Theological Studies, equipping ministry leaders for relevant, thoughtful, and Christ-centered service in their unique ministry context. The MDiv is also widely recognized as a prerequisite degree for the Doctor of Ministry and for PhD programs at some seminaries.

Upon the completion of a Master of Divinity graduates should be able to:

1.0 Biblical Scholarship

Critically interpret Scripture to develop theological conclusions that enlist the supporting sources of tradition, reason, experience and community.

2.0 Theological Research

Produce graduate-level theological research by utilizing critical research and information literacy skills.

3.0 Spiritual Formation

Conduct themselves with Christian maturity, demonstrating submission to and empowerment by the Holy Spirit through love for God and others.

4.0 Effective Communication

Construct teaching plans, curriculum, and public presentations for communicating biblical and theological truth in various settings.

5.0 Pastoral Care

Provide Spirit-led, theologically-informed, interculturally-sensitive pastoral care and wise ethical guidance to individuals and communities.

6.0 Congregational Leadership

Plan, lead, and evaluate with cultural awareness, activities that involve others in working toward shared goals and opportunities for faithful ministry and mission.

M.Div. | 72 UNITS

The 72-unit curriculum of the Master of Divinity consists of a series of twenty courses which build upon each other to achieve the program goals. The first 44 units comprise the MATS core curriculum minus the Theological Capstone. The final 28 units are weighted toward the acquisition and refinement of practical ministry skills and competencies. The first, second and eighth courses run for five weeks and include a one-week residency.

Co-Requisite: Course must be completed prior to or taken simultaneously with the desired course.

ART

ART 085 Cinema Appreciation (NC)

Cinema Appreciation is designed to introduce students to a broad range of films (domestic/international, indie/studio, artistic/entertainment, etc.) while exploring the transformation of the characters within the narratives, investigating the impact for transformation in audiences, and understanding how the film impacted the medium as a whole. (not for credit)

ART 100, 200, 300 Drawing I-III (2)

These courses engage the student in a study of visual art through the form of drawing. These classes are intended to prepare the student with drawing techniques and to develop visual thinking skills. These skills are springboards for other artistic endeavors and foster deep aesthetic engagements in the day-to-day context. These courses introduce students to and allow students to practice various methods, materials, and central concepts of drawing, concentrating on drawing from observation, aesthetics, and media techniques. Students are required to furnish art materials and tools.

ART 105, 205, 305 Painting I-III (2)

These courses engage the student in a study of visual art through the form of painting. These courses cover concepts and techniques of painting by utilizing multiple media (acrylic and oil) and various styles and formats. Class projects will be used as a means of growing familiar with the creative issues from each period while experimenting with various means of expression in wet media so that the contemporary art student may gain the widest breadth of possible techniques and directions for their works. Students are required to furnish art materials and tools.

ART 120 Graphic Design I (3)

This course is an introduction to the fundamentals of graphic design. Graphic design is presented as a key element in communication. Students learn to execute various skills which illustrate the principles and elements of design, the structure and usage of typography, page layout, tee shirt design, logo design, color basics, and photo editing. (Lab Fee)

ART 154, 254, 354 Digital Photography I-III (2)

These courses introduce and expand upon the aesthetic and technical theories and techniques of digital photography. Topics include camera and lens operation, memory cards, file formats, exposure, white balance, composition, lighting, creativity, image editing software and output. Course requires a digital camera. (Lab Fee)

BIBLE

BIBL 101 Pentateuch (3)

A study of the first five books of the Old Testament. This course focuses on the Pentateuch's literary and structural nature, its historical and cultural settings, and its content and theology. Special attention is given to understanding the God of Israel, creation, humanity, Israel, salvation, covenant, and law. The course will also examine the various theories of the Pentateuch's origin and development.

BIBL 113 Introduction to Biblical Literature (3)

A broad overview of the Old & New Testaments designed as an entrance into God's Scriptures. Emphasis is given to the unfolding story of God's kingdom as it concerns the redemption of the entire Creation. Accordingly, students will engage in spiritual formation exercises informed by their study to become more faithful participants in this narrative.

MINISTRY

MIN 095 Ministry Formation (No Credit)

Each semester students complete ministry requirements based on their degree of choice. The program begins by assisting students in locating a local church that is well-suited to their ministry goals. Progression through the program requires the student to: (1) consistently attend church services, (2) become involved in a primary ministry, (3) participate in one outreach per semester, (4) be mentored by someone in leadership at their church, and (5) attend the minimum required on campus chapel services.

MIN 130 Foundations of Ministry (3)

Defines the nature and function of the church from a Spirit-filled perspective. The course introduces and examines historical models of ministry from the early church to present day, as well as a focus on church health, while examining Biblical passages related to the church, including its ministers and ministries.

MIN 209 Foursquare History & Polity (3)

This course takes students through Foursquare history and the required elements of Foursquare Licensing Coaching. The intention is to make students more knowledgeable about Foursquare history and doctrine while also preparing students for the inevitable interview process required to obtain a U.S. Ministerial Credential in the future.

MIN 210 Spiritual Gifts (3)

A practical course in which the student is encouraged to participate in the ministry of the Holy Spirit, to understand the purpose of each spiritual gift, and operate in his/her "gifting." The effective working of the gifts will be examined from the individual to the assembled church. Personal involvement in ministry will be encouraged both within and beyond the classroom setting with a view toward the development of ongoing ministry wherein God confirms His Word with signs and wonders.

MIN 230 Spiritual Disciplines (3)

A study of the biblical principles that Christ employed in training His disciples. Practical guidelines are offered to identify Christ-like character and accomplish personal discipleship transformation, including an introduction to spiritual direction as an art and discipline for personal spiritual transformation and mentoring others; group participation is required of students.

MIN 309 Church Dynamics (3)

This course is an introduction to the general concepts of church and organizational dynamics, including organizational structure, behavior, culture, metaphors, systems theory, communication, and organizational development practices. Students will gain a working knowledge of organizational principles that can be applied in their particular leadership setting and thus enhance their ability to lead effectively, with a particular focus on ministry and church applications. (OUG Only)

MIN 315 Reconciliation & Social Justice (3)

This course introduces students to the theology and practice of reconciliation from a Christian perspective. Based upon the theme verse Galatians 3:28 that says, "there is neither Jew nor Greek; there is neither slave nor free; nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus;" this course will focus primarily on issues of race and social class. It will help students understand the theology, foundational principles, conceptual theories and working definitions that undergird the practice of reconciliation. Additionally, students will explore their own racial, ethnic and cultural heritage and identify the knowledge, attitudes and skills necessary to participate in the work of reconciliation.

MIN 320 NextGen Ministry (3)

A study of the theological and philosophical foundations for NextGen Ministry, the life of the NextGen Pastor, and strategic and practical plans for implementation.

MIN 325 Pastoral Counseling (3)

This course addresses the pastor's presence, identity, and counseling role and is structured from the perspectives of Christian theology and the behavioral sciences. Consideration is given to such topics as: an integrated view of the care of the soul, family of origin formation, addiction and recovery, family systems theory as applied to the life of the local church and the health of the pastor, developmental processes throughout life's stages, and prominent personal and relational dynamics encountered by humanity. The course provides insights, information, and practical applications for effective pastoral formation and care of souls in pastoral ministry.

MIN 333 Healthy Church Development (3)

An introductory study of the characteristics and principles underlying the qualitative and quantitative growth of a healthy local church from both a biblical and sociological perspective. Particular attention is given to identifying and applying characteristics of effective development.

MIN 370 Internship (2)

This course involves service learning in a local church or field location (depending on major) under the direction of a supervising professor. Coursework includes reflective work in addition to ministry/vocational requirements. Student must apply and be accepted into internship program in order to enroll. While enrolled in MIN 370, students are limited to 18 outstanding units. (May repeat; limited number may apply towards degree)

MIN 417 Emerging Models of Ministry (3)

This course serves as a capstone to the Ministry and Leadership. It is an analysis of the current cultural paradigms found in a postmodern milieu, including aspects of philosophy, theology, media and technology, art, community, leadership, and communication. Special attention is given to the integration of cultural paradigms with Christian ministry. Drawing on the previous fourteen courses, the biblical principles of leadership and ministry are explored in the context of contemporary culture. (OUG Only)

MIN 380-382 Applied Ministry I-III (1)

This course is designed to provide practical ministry leadership experience for Ministry students. For the duration of the semester students will serve in a leadership or mentorship role in a ministry context directly connected to the university on a weekly basis. Classroom sessions will focus on discussions of ministry lessons learned on the field as well as taking time to engage practical ministry challenges and questions students have about the work and life of a minister. The desired outcome is that students grow in their skills and confidence as ministers, through hands-on engagement and meaningful reflection.

MIN 442 Contextualized Ministry (3)

This class will examine and develop pragmatic skills for analysis and engagement of cultural trends for the furtherance of local church ministry. Students will learn to prepare ministry plans to effectively evangelize and disciple in the current cultural context. Sub-topics related to this class include: community gospel saturation, contemporary ministry paradigms, ministry and the arts, and civic engagement.

MIN 445 Ministry Practicum (3)

Prerequisite: ENG 103

This course will give practical experience in leading church events and ministries. Topics include: leading events, legal issues, marriages, funerals, organizing sermon/teaching series, service coordination, and management of church staff.

MIN 480 Methods in Discipleship (3)

This course will examine the biblical and practical steps that enable a person to be a disciple of Jesus through the lens of the Foursquare Gospel, then to discover systems, biblical principles, and methods that create a disciple making context. Special consideration will be given to examining the ways discipleship both transcends and is impacted by culture, technology, and shifting norms and values. Students will practice discipleship in their local context and work toward the development of a disciple-making resource for a local church.

MIN 500 Cultural Trends & Ministry (3)

This course lays a theoretical foundation to identify and examine the effect of sociological and technological trends upon society and to minister to people impacted by those trends. The course provides an understanding of a Christian worldview, cultural context, and implications for ministry. It focuses on how to apply biblical truth with sensitivity to various cultural contexts and gives attention to strategizing contextually for Christian organizations to impact culture. (MASL Only)

MIN 600 Pastoral Care 1: Introduction to Pastoral Counseling (4)

This course introduces the pastor's counseling role and is structured from the perspectives of Christian theology, spiritual formation, and the behavioral sciences. Consideration is given to such topics as: an integrated view of the care of the soul, family of origin formation, addiction and recovery, family systems theory as applied to the life of the local congregation, the mental and emotional health of the pastor, and developmental processes throughout life's stages. The course provides insights, information, and practical individual and community applications for the effective care of souls in pastoral ministry. (MDIV)

MIN 610 Pastoral Care 2: Caring for People in Crisis (4)

This course explores crisis counseling from a pastoral perspective and develops the practical skills of understanding and helping people in various kinds of crisis in the church and community. The course emphasizes the integration of theory and theologically sound clinical applications. Students will analyze the relevant research on crises, resolution, and resilience; and will demonstrate several ways of handling crisis, trauma, death, and the various parameters for interventions. (MDIV)

MIN 620 Communicating the Word of God (2)

This course trains students to connect the Word of God to those they serve. Students will utilize sound interpretive principles, artistic discipline, and effective public communication strategies for: 1) delivering presentations that bring Scripture to life, 2) highlighting its practical applications in today's world, and 3) leading towards spiritual growth in the lives of believers. (MDIV)

MIN 630 Mentored Christian Service (2)

This course develops the ability to fuse Christian theology and Christian practice within a particular ministry setting. Integrating the theories learned in the classroom with ministry work in the local church or Christian organization, students will serve in a specific ministry context under the supervision and mentorship of an approved ministry leader. Seasoned ministry leaders have the option of mentoring an emerging leader in pastoral ministry. Students will complete a summative assignment that demonstrates a thoughtful synthesis of theology, personal spiritual formation, and practical Christian service. (MDIV)

Students review case studies and propose plans, policy, and implementation processes within the framework of OD. (OUG Only)

ORST 450 Organizational Management Capstone (3)

This course serves as a culminating experience for students to apply concepts, constructs, and skills learned throughout the organizational management program. As the capstone, this course provides the platform for students to explore proven and current topics in management. Students will complete an organizational management service-learning project, field study, an E-Portfolio including career enhancing materials, or other experiential project related to their current or future career interests. The deliverable will be designed to create value from the perspective of potential employers while achieving pedagogical and experiential goals for learners. Students should also use their chosen capstone type to demonstrate the ability to apply the principles and practice of ethical and responsible organizational management behaviors consistent with Biblical leadership models. (OUG Only)

ORST 500 Human Behavior in Organizations (3)

This course introduces concepts, theories and current research in the effective management of organizational behavior. Topics include organizational structure, culture, politics, human resources, communication, team and group dynamics, perception and motivation, and organizational development practices. Students will gain a working knowledge of organizational principles that can be applied in their particular leadership setting and thus enhance their ability to lead effectively, with a particular focus on ministry and non-profit applications. (MASL/MLSP Only)

ORST 605 Organizational Research Methods (2)

Students are introduced to the concepts, principles, and methods of social science research (qualitative and quantitative) important in strategic leadership and management settings, and shown how these can be applied to their Capstone project through practice research projects. (MASL/MLSP Only)

ORST 610 Strategic Organizational Analysis (3)

This course serves as a culminating experience for students to use specific research practices and apply concepts and skills learned throughout the program. Students will be given a research method and coached in its use in an organization or context of their choosing. The outcome of this class is a comprehensive research project that can serve as a capstone and demonstration of the overall programs impact on their ability to apply and integrate critical strategic leadership competencies in a way that serves Kingdom purposes. (MASL/MLSP Only)

PHILOSOPHY

PHIL 220 Christian Worldview (3)

This course guides students in understanding that the Christian faith is both a knowledge tradition and a way of life, and Christians should critically examine the faith so that they will "always be prepared to give the reason for the hope" that we have (1 Pet. 3:15). This course will help students to understand the Christian perspective on reality and why Christianity is true, rational, and relevant to all aspects of life. Students will interact with the history of philosophy, competing worldviews, and alternative visions within the Christian tradition.

PHIL 300 Ethics (3)

Prerequisite: ENG 103

This course is a study of the basis for personal and public morality from a Christian worldview as a general foundation for academic disciplines. Secular approaches are contrasted with biblical ethics. The practical application of these principles and theories are applied to current societal issues. Secondly, the course seeks to assist students in developing personal moral convictions.

PHIL 315 Ethics & Aesthetics (3)

Prerequisite: ENG 103

This course engages the student in a study of philosophy through the intersection of ethics and aesthetics. Because both ethics and aesthetics are axiological studies that deal with value (moral verses aesthetic values), they are closely linked and often cross paths in cultural situations. This course consists of 3 interrelated units: Normative Ethics, Ethics of the Arts, and the Aesthetics of Morality. By addressing these topics students will gain familiarity with primary questions of moral and aesthetic philosophy, while developing skills for reading, explicating, analyzing, and evaluating philosophical topics. Particular attention will be given to the application of ethical constructs to matters of aesthetics.

PHIL 410 Biblical Ethics in Leadership & Organizations (3)

This course overviews ethical theories and compares and contrasts them with biblical ethical standards. Students will consider how these theories impact organizational structures and culture, Christian leadership, and the society, in general. Special attention is given to practical applications of ethical theories and moral decision-making founded in biblical principles. (OUG)

PHYSICAL EDUCATION & HEALTH

PED 125 Varsity Sports (1)

This course provides basic instruction, practice, and competition in varsity athletics. Credit will be awarded upon completion of one season of intercollegiate competition. An athlete must be prepared to spend a minimum of 10 hours per week in practice and game time. A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 is required. A minimum of 12 units must be taken during the semester the sport is being played. (May repeat)

This course provides an introduction to the use of statistics within the helping professions. Topics include data analysis; correlation and regression; sampling and experimental design; basic probability; measures of central tendency; correlation; normal distribution; forecasting, and hypothesis development and testing.

SBS 230 Marriage and Family Systems (3)

Prerequisite: ENG 103

A study of the biblical principles of family life with emphasis on the role of husband/wife and parent/child relationships. Students will review their own families of origin in an attempt to learn what it takes to develop a healthy family in today's society. Analysis of marital relationships and the variables influencing communication, human intimacy and interpersonal dysfunction will be explored. Emphasis is on strategies for strengthening the healthy marriage and stabilizing the family unit.

SBS 250 Introduction to Sociology (3)

Prerequisite: ENG 103

This course is an introduction to the field of sociology, the study of human society and social interactions. The main focus is on the group not the individual, and the course attempts to examine the forces that operate throughout the society, including social causes and social change. In this course special consideration is given to the relationship of group behavior to the Christian life and ministry.

SBS 304 Group Dynamics (3)

This course features an introduction to group theory and practices in the helping professions. Students will study group behavior and development, focusing on the complexity of relationships and the understanding of group-level processes. This course will assist students in developing their knowledge, skill, and experience in how groups function and the dynamics of human interaction.

SBS 340 Crisis Intervention (3)

Pre-Requisite: PSYC 260.

This course is designed to explore crisis counseling, its connection to clinically and theologically sound practical applications; and the integration of theory and spiritual application. This course will explore the various ways to handle a crisis situation, death and trauma, as well as the various parameters for interventions. It will also center on developing the skills necessary for the counselor, minister, and individual to succeed. The student will examine some of the relevant research on crises, resolution, and resilience. The major focus throughout the course will be on learning the practical skills of understanding and helping people in crisis.

SBS 365 Research Methods (3)

Prerequisite: SBS 160

This course refines students' research techniques and methodology and is designed to assist the student in developing an understanding of the conceptual foundations of various research strategies. Emphasis will be on research terminology and the design of appropriate studies in the applied fields (business or social-science). Cross-listed as BUS 365.

SBS 405 Community Development (3)

Community development presents the basics of social work practice and ministry as it has developed in response to the needs of multiple diverse communities. Students will explore methods used to mobilize people to collectively solve their own problems, form ongoing organizations that enhance their power to meet their own needs, build relationships, and develop resources where none exist. Emphasis is on work with diverse human populations and the importance of evaluation in practice.

SBS 429 Child Welfare (3)

In this course students explore programs and policies that have been developed to meet the needs of children and families. The ideas, philosophies, politics, and economics affecting these programs and policies are studied in terms of choices to be made in policy and the practice of helping professions. Students will investigate child welfare in relation to the church and faith-based agencies. International and social justice issues related to child welfare will be examined.

THEATER

THEA 242 Theater Performance / Production (3)

The focus of this class is producing school theatrical performances. Students will work on various aspects of the productions, depending on their role. These include: acting, set design/construction, costume design/construction, tech (lighting, sound), makeup, and props as well as stage management and direction. This is a performance-based class. (May repeat)

THEA 300 Directing (3)

This course is designed to introduce and expand upon the process of directing in the settings of live and filmed events. Students will gain hands-on experience in all key aspects of the directing process, from analyzing the text of a project to sculpting and casting the vision to the production and performance teams. A special emphasis on project and team management will be incorporated into the curriculum. Students will have the opportunity to direct a commercial, a scene for a live performance, and a short film project as they engage in the praxis of directing for each genre.

THEOLOGY

THEO 200 Introduction to Christian Theology (3)

This course will cover the foundational elements of the Christian faith. Historical, theological, and practical issues will be examined respective to the Apostles' Creed. Working from this historical foundation, students will explore the diversity of Christian thought, locating different positions on important doctrines, and understanding the Pentecostal perspective of the Foursquare church. This exploration will allow students to appreciate the broader body of Christ that confesses the Apostles' Creed.

THEO 220 Theology I (3)

Prerequisite: THEO 200

In the first of three sequential courses, students in Theology I will use Scripture to formulate theological positions. As they come to know God and live in the world he created, students will also discover how tradition, community, and reason can inform their viewpoints.

- Prolegomena—Explores preliminary questions that set the foundation for studying theology, including how we know what we know, the doctrines of revelation and Scripture, and theological method.
- Doctrine of God—Explores the triune nature of God, his character, and his works.
- Anthropology—Explores humanity as God's creation, sinners alienated from God by voluntary disobedience, and objects of his redeeming grace.

THEO 320 Theology II (3)

Prerequisite: THEO 200

Hamartiology – Examines the origin, nature, and consequences of sin and the sinful nature of humanity.

- Christology—Examines the person and work of Jesus Christ including his incarnation, ministry, death, resurrection, and ascension.
- Soteriology—Analyzes the doctrine of salvation: repentance, faith, justification through the mediatorial work of Christ, and sanctification.

THEO 401 Old Testament Theology (3)

Prerequisite: BIBL 101

A direct study of biblical passages in order to understand and appreciate the key teaching and emphases of the Old Testament in light of their historical settings. (Fulfills upper division theology requirement.)

THEO 403 Theology of the Synoptic Gospels (3)

Prerequisite: BIBL 216, BIBL 230 (C grade or higher), and ENG 103

The New Testament contains three accounts of the life of Jesus, all bearing striking similarities in their general contours, yet each presenting a distinct portrait of Jesus. The aim of this course will be to meet the challenge of interpretation that this phenomenon presents, exploring these Gospels as witnesses to the faith of the early church that confessed Jesus as its Lord. (Fulfills upper division theology requirement.)

THEO 405 Biblical Theology of Leadership (3)

This course helps students to understand leadership from a biblical perspective and to develop a theology of leadership. Selected biblical characters and passages are examined in order to understand and appreciate the key biblical teachings on godly, effective, and ethical leadership. (OUG Only)

THEO 406 Theology of Luke & Acts (3)

Prerequisite: BIBL 216, ENG 103, BIBL 230 (C grade or higher)

This course explores the theology presented by the author of Luke-Acts in relation to the rest of the New Testament and its Hebrew Bible and Second-Temple background. Attention is given to the analysis and synthesis of biblical texts to draw out the key theological themes and purposes of the Lukan corpus particularly as they impact the Church's understanding of God's character, actions, and plans, the nature, purpose, and mission of the Church, and the presence and nature of the Kingdom of God. The Holy Spirit's role and significance will be discussed in relation to each of these emphases.

THEO 412 Theology & the Christian Life (3)

This course will explore the theological foundations for ministry and leadership and the broad themes of Christian thought. Particular attention will be given to understanding the nature and character of God, the person of Christ, the person and work of the Holy Spirit, the nature of humanity, and the nature and purpose of the church. Foursquare doctrine will also be examined within the greater context of Pentecostal Christian thought. (OUG Only)

THEO 420 Theology III (3)

Prerequisite: THEO 200

- Pneumatology—Examines the person and work of the Holy Spirit, including his work in making Christ real in the hearts of believers. The baptism, gifts, and ministry of the Spirit, especially divine healing, are emphasized as aspects of his continuing activity in the Church today.
- Ecclesiology—Analyzes the origin, nature, and constitution of the Church; its local organization, ministry, ordinances, and worship.
- Eschatology—Examines the last things: final judgment, heaven and hell, and the second coming of Christ.

THEO 500 Leadership Theology (3)

This course explores key theological positions that undergird ministry leadership and will help students build a biblical foundation for strategic, transformational, and ethical leadership. Attention is given to how biblical truth and well-developed theology can guide the character, agenda, and motive of the leader. Students will learn to do theology in order to develop a consistent understanding of leadership and apply sound principles from this study to their own lives and ministry settings. (MASL/MLSP Only)

THEO 525 Spiritual Development & the Theological Scholar (2)

This course explores spiritual development theories and how they relate to the life and practice of the biblical and theological scholar. Students will learn the stages of spiritual development and how this may affect their ministries and/or teaching. Students will have the opportunity to explore their own development. (MATS/MDIV)

THEO 530 Essentials of Pentecostal Theology (4)

This course provides an overview of the essential elements of the Christian faith as understood from a Pentecostal perspective. Using the Foursquare Statement of Faith alongside other confessional statements as a framework, students will explore and develop theological conclusions from biblical texts describing God (Yahweh, The Trinity), the person, teachings, and atoning work of Jesus Christ, the person and work of the Holy Spirit, the nature and purpose of human beings, the nature and purpose of the church of Jesus Christ, and the future. (MATS/MDIV)

THEO 600 Theology & Worldview (3)

This course explores Christian theology as it interacts with the diversity and complexity of various worldviews. Attention is given to defining, identifying, and critiquing various aspects of and contributing factors in the development of a worldview, as well as the significance worldviews have for theology and ministry practice. A special emphasis is placed upon examining the historical relationship between theology and culture(s) and applying theology to one's immediate, personal and corporate cultural context. (MASL/MLSP Only)

THEO 625 Patristic to Late Medieval Theology (4)

This course surveys the history of Christian traditions from the Apostolic era to the Late Medieval era focusing critical engagement on the historiography and theological developments of the Christian Church. Students will be introduced to the tools and resources available for work in the field of historical theology. Special focus will be given to the development of theological discourse in general but will also address the development of Trinitarian theology and Christology in the various linguistic and cultural contexts of Christian communities. Related topics and themes to be explored will include the development of religious authority, ascetic theology, and ecclesiology including the sacramental theology. (MATS/MDIV)

THEO 630 Reformation to Contemporary Theology (4)

This course surveys the history of Christian traditions from the Reformation era to the Contemporary era focusing critical engagement on the historiography and theological developments of the Christian Church. Special focus will be given to the development of theological discourse but will also address the development of soteriology, theological anthropology, and eschatology in various linguistic and cultural contexts of Christian communities. Related topics and themes to be explored will include changes in religious authority and ecclesiology because of the Reformation and the Enlightenment, the dynamics of faith and reason, and the development of political theologies. (MATS/MDIV)

THEO 635 Theological Studies Capstone (4)

This course provides students with a summative experience for integrating their studies throughout the program. Students will choose between completing a teaching apprenticeship and a master's thesis. Students are expected to decide between these options in advance of the course. Approval of thesis topic or apprenticeship will be given prior to the class through discussion with program chair and/or Capstone course instructor. (MATS Only)

Will include such art forms as visual arts, lighting, video, dance, scripture presentation, drama, and music. (May repeat)

WAM 140 Production Ensemble (0.5)

This ensemble provides opportunity for students to gain hands on experience with music production. Students will plan, record, and mix a student-written song under the guidance and supervision of a WAM instructor. (May repeat)

WAM 143 Worship Ensemble (0.5)

Co-requisite: Must be a WAM Major

This ensemble provides students the opportunity to work in traveling worship teams. Groups will travel to and perform at youth groups, churches, camps, and other events during the school semesters and sometimes during breaks. The teams are coached by a WAM faculty member and will work in conjunction with representatives and ambassadors of Life Pacific. (May repeat)

WAM 210 Introduction to Music Production (2)

This course serves as an introduction to the concepts of music production. Students will learn basic techniques of recording software and hardware, working with Digital Audio Workstations (DAWs), and effects processing such as equalization, compression, reverb, and delay. These techniques will provide students with the skills required for recording sessions and music production.

WAM 310 Creative Arts in Worship (3)

This course guides the student in integrating various uses of the arts as ministry. The biblical application of the arts and ministry will be studied as the student discovers what the role of arts can be within the church. Current cultural trends will be highlighted and assessed in order to understand practical methods of partnering theology and the arts. The course will highlight the use of painting, drama, spoken word, performance dance, poetry and other methods that may be used as a form of worship as well as a teaching tool within the church. Students will be able to practically apply these methods in a church setting while also being encouraged to discover ways to use the arts as a cultural bridge between the church and the outside world.

WAM 338 Worship Technology w/ Lab (3)

This class will focus on principles for using technology in worship ministry, including the application of technology in both live and recording environments. Students will gain proficiency in sound reinforcement and the use of media, plus stage lighting and set up to foster worship experiences. The course engages the student in practical application through a laboratory component. (Lab fee)

WAM 450 Worship Theology & Design (3)

This course guides students in navigating the complexity of designing worship services for people of different ages, geographical locations, faith traditions, and cultures. Students will integrate what they have learned elsewhere in the program as they apply their understanding of worship leadership, the role of technology, song arrangement, the arts, and other elements in planning services and fostering worship. The course engages the student in practical application through a laboratory component. (Lab fee)

WAM 462 Worship Arts Internship (3)

This course provides the opportunity for students to use their WA skills in experience-based, practical training with an established WA ministry in a local church or other ministry. Students are assigned specific leadership responsibilities under the close supervision of an approved, skilled mentor. This course concludes with a capstone project, coordinated between student and Faculty Supervisor. The project will include research, collaboration, creativity, and synthesis of learning acquired through previous coursework in the major.

WAM 470 Worship Arts Internship II (3)

Prerequisite: WAM462

This course expands on Worship Arts Internship I by engaging topics of leadership and administration in a classroom setting while providing praxis of these principles through an internship at a local church. A special emphasis will be placed on engaging the student in the execution of their preferred concentration in a professional setting. Students will be guided in the process of creating a professional portfolio that will include a resume, cover letters and high-quality demos/videos of their work in order to assist them with employment opportunities post- graduation.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board is responsible for, and is the ultimate authority for, all aspects of University operations, including the University's financial health and welfare. The Board exercises this authority through its general, academic, and financial policymaking functions. The Board of Trustees also oversees the University's planning process and the progress on planning goals, the Board's responsibility to support the President and assess his or her performance, and review annually the President's compensation and terms of employment. The Board of Trustees meets three times per year, every February, June, and October. The President leads the University as the chief executive officer and serves at the pleasure of the Board of Trustees. Board members do not receive financial compensation and do not own any controlling interest in the university.
