

Organizational Conflict Analysis Essay [35% of the final course grade] (Meets Course Student Learning Outcomes 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5) Due Sunday, Week 8.

- For the Organizational Conflict Analysis Essay students will analyze a conflict students experienced within an organization. Grade will be based on outline and recommendations made by the instructor on Assignment 4. If students cannot find a suitable conflicted situation please consider the case study found in Week 3 materials.
- The paper should be 10-12 pages (not including required cover and reference pages), in MLA format. For help with MLA, please see Lesson 3 of the Online Undergraduate (OUG) Orientation course for video tutorials and helpful links. Writing in first person is allowed as this is an analysis of personal experience. Write in active voice present tense (not passive voice).
- Cite concepts from the required learning materials from this course to show that students can use the concepts to analyze an organizational conflict per course objective five.
- Students are invited to tell their story (except if students choose to use the case study), but also demonstrate their interaction with the material so, in addition to the Bible, please cite at least 5 different sources from assigned or recommended course reading (articles and books). The grading matrix is provided.
