

State Authorization for Distance Education

The U.S. Department of Education's regulation 34 CFR 600.9(c), State Authorization, requires that a higher education institution offering distance education in a state where it is not physically located meet individual state requirements for offering distance or correspondence education within that state and requires that institutions provide certain disclosures relating to state distance authorization status. Following is a statement of our authorization status in each state:

State	Current Status
Alabama	LPU is not currently authorized
Alaska	LPU is pursuing exemption
Arizona	Authorization not required
Arkansas	LPU is not currently authorized
Colorado	Authorization not required
Connecticut	LPU is not currently authorized
Delaware	LPU has obtained authorization
District of Columbia	LPU is not currently authorized
Florida	Authorization not required
Georgia	LPU is pursuing authorization
Hawaii	Authorization not required
Idaho	Authorization not required
Illinois	Authorization not required
Indiana	LPU has obtained authorization
Iowa	LPU is not currently authorized
Kansas	Authorization not required
Kentucky	Authorization not required
Louisiana	Authorization not required
Maine	Authorization not required
Maryland	LPU has obtained authorization
Massachusetts	LPU has obtained authorization
Michigan	LPU is not currently authorized
Minnesota	LPU is not currently authorized
Mississippi	LPU is not currently authorized
Missouri	Authorization not required
Montana	LPU has obtained authorization
Nebraska	Authorization not required
Nevada	Authorization not required
New Hampshire	Authorization not required
New Jersey	Authorization not required
New Mexico	LPU is not currently authorized
New York	LPU is not currently authorized
North Carolina	Authorization not required

North Dakota	LPU has obtained authorization
Ohio	Authorization not required
Oklahoma	Authorization not required
Oregon	LPU has obtained authorization
Pennsylvania	LPU has obtained authorization
Rhode Island	LPU is not currently authorized
South Carolina	Authorization not required
South Dakota	Authorization not required
Tennessee	Authorization not required
Texas	Authorization not required
Utah	Authorization not required
Vermont	Authorization not required
Virginia	LPU has obtained authorization
Washington	Authorization not required
West Virginia	Authorization not required
Wisconsin	Authorization not required
Wyoming	LPU has obtained authorization